MISS BEIDLER WINS PRIZE IN BAR CONTEST

Miss Deborah Beidler, 15, daughter of Mrs. J. Willis Beidler, Biglerville, and the late Mr. Beidler, was announced today as the winner in the annual essay contest held by the Adams County Bar Association.

The essay is based upon the annual trip by the Ninth Graders of the county's schools to the courthouse here. During the winter terms of court arrangements are made by the bar association to have the students come to the courthouse where they tour the offices and are told by the officials details concerning the work of each office, and then spend a hour or so watching whatever case is on trial before the court. Judge W. C. Sheely normally talks to the students during a recess while they are in the courtroom to give them pointers on court procedure.

After the visit each student is asked to write an essay on the tour of the courthouse and county government.

Miss Beidler will receive a $15 prize from the county bar association for having the best essay of the group and her entry will be placed in a state contest.

Aged 15, Miss Beidler will enter Tenth Grade at Biglerville High School this fall. An academic student, she is also a majorette with the band, a member of the Senior Choir, a member of the Dramatics Club and of the Student Council, a member of the Junior Honor Society and a staff member of the Bi-Hi Times, school publication.

Last school year she served as president of the Ninth Grade.

The second place winner, Miss Marilyn Toms, New Oxford, will receive $10 from the bar association. The third prize of $5 goes to Linda Griest, of Bermudian Springs High School.

FOUR MEN FACE SERIOUS COUNT

Four men were held for the October term of court on charges of contributing to the delinquency of minors following a hearing before Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder Wednesday evening.

Two of the men, Mark Eugene Lawyer, 22, and Cary Don Knott, 18, both of Hanover, are white; two others, James W. Townsend, 20, 130 Breckenridge St., and Ronald E. Doakes, 19, 260 S. Washington St., are negroes.

Lawyer and Knott were arrested Tuesday, jailed and then released on bail for the hearing. Townsend and Doakes were arrested Wednesday afternoon and placed in jail and then were released on bail after the hearing. Bail was $500 in each case.

Three juveniles are involved, two white girls, aged 15 and 16 from the Gettysburg area, and a juvenile youth from Hanover area.

Borough police brought the charges after they were called August 17 to the Recreation Park late at night on complaints of residents of the area of loud noises from the park.

Juvenile court hearings on the two girls were held prior to the hearing before the justice Wednesday night. One of the girls was committed to a juvenile institution.

13 Graduated From College

Thirteen students were graduated from Gettysburg College at the end of the second session of summer school.

Those who earned the degree of Bachelor of Arts and will be invited to attend formal commencement exercises next June are:

Richardson Bainbridge, Merion; Stephen B. Bonney, Drexel Hill; Donald G. Boone and William O. Seppel, Baltimore; George E. Burnett Jr., Salisbury, Md.; Helen Louise Fitzgerald, Philadelphia; Jean Carol Linah, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Linah, R. 4. She is a graduate of Biglerville High School; Richard L. MacNett, East Orange, N. J.; Francis J. Matozzo, Norristown; Ruth E. Sellev, Ardmore; Gordon W. Thayer, Braintree, Mass.; Donald R. Vitko, Stratford, Conn., and Arthur H. Wedra, Green Creek, N. J.

Eisenhowers Return Home From Abroad

Gettysburg welcomed home today its most distinguished citizens, former President and Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower, following their five-week European tour. The Eisenhowers, who had sailed from Cobh, Ireland, aboard the liner S.S. America, docked in New York at 8 o'clock, drove to Idlewild Airport and then flew to York arriving there at 11 o'clock this morning. They were greeted by Col. and Mrs. John Eisenhower, their son and daughter-in-law.

Three cars met the Eisenhowers at the airport and they left for Gettysburg promptly. They were accompanied by Barbara Ann, 13, and David Eisenhower, 14, their grandchildren who had made the European tour with their grandparents. Brig. Gen. Robert L. Schultz, the former president's military aide, Mrs. Schultz, Freeman Gosden, of the "Amos and Andy" radio team, Mrs. Gosden and their son, Craig, 13, also traveled to Europe with the Eisenhowers.

SAILED IN JULY

The Eisenhowers sailed for Europe aboard the Queen Elizabeth in mid-July. They visited England, France, Denmark, Germany, Sweden, Scotland and Ireland. They spent some time at Culzean Castle, near Prestwick, Scotland, where the British government has allocated Eisenhower an apartment for life.

Prior to his first trip abroad since 1928 as a private citizen, Eisenhower said: "I hope to carry abroad the message that we are

Takes Last Vow As Christian Brother

Brother Gregory Rene, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willard R. Sterner, Hanover R. 1, was one of 18 Christian Brothers who took their final vows as Brothers of the Christian Schools Wednesday afternoon at the order's Ammendale, Md., Motherhouse. The very ceremony climaxed a retreat of 30 days.

Brother Rene graduated from Delone Catholic High School, McSherrystown, in 1955 and immediately entered the Christian Brothers Novitiate. He graduated magna cum laude from La Salle College in 1959, receiving his Bachelor of Arts degree in history. In June, 1960, he received the Master of Arts degree in Theology. He then began his teaching career at Pittsburgh Central Catholic High School.

"The establishment of a common command for the two armed forces immediately."

Impoverished, agricultural Jordan and oil-rich Saudi Arabia have agreed to merge their nations' military forces, coordinate their economies and present a united front in Arab and world affairs.

Hussein and Saud announced their plans for comprehensive unity of the Western-allied Middle East nations in a joint statement issued in Amman and Mecca on Wednesday night.

They called on all other Arab states to join in their agreements, but it was obvious they did not expect President Nasser's United Arab Republic, for one, to accept the invitation. They accused Nasser of shattering Arab unity.

FOLLOWS MEETING

The statement was released a few hours after Hussein returned to Amman from a three-day meeting with Saud at Taif, Saudi Arabia. "The two monarchs agreed on 'complete military unity' and

SCHOOL BOARD TRIO PUSHES MERGER PLAN

Three members of the Highland Twp. School Board today sent letters to all homes in the township urging the residents to vote in favor of the proposed merger with the Gettysburg Area School District. The township turned down merging in a prior vote.

Howard A. Knouse, Thomas H. Allen and William I. Jacobs, the three members of the five-man board whose vote brought about the placing of the question of merger of the school district on this fall's ballot, sent a three-page letter in which they outlined their view of the merits of merging and the disadvantages of remaining independent.

They stress that merging will effect a tax saving for Highland Twp. residents. In their letter, the three directors said, "Because Highland is a small agricultural, residential-type township, it has a relatively unfavorable tax base. Our restricted tax base is the direct cause of Highland's school tax being the highest of our school system. Comparing our tax base with that of Gettysburg we note in Gettysburg other tax sources such as many business firms, services and amusements, etc., not to mention other higher assessed properties in residential areas. The residents of Highland patronize these businesses and services and amusements. It seems Highland should have some return on its investment in Gettysburg. She may have it, too, if her voters take their responsibility to heart at election time."

SPECIAL SUBSIDY

The letter from the three members of the board stresses the special subsidy given by the state to districts which have merged. Gettysburg and Freedom Twp., which merged last year as the Gettysburg Area School District, now receive the additional subsidy. Highland and other school districts which are in the Gettysburg Joint School System but not in the merger do not receive the special subsidy.

The letter points out that the present state law would provide for Highland and the other districts in the jointure to be merged, whether the residents are willing or not, by 1965. However the same rules indicate that those which merge voluntarily will probably continue to receive the additional amount from the state while those that are merged involuntarily probably will not receive the incentive bonus. The letter notes that there is strong opposition throughout the state to the school redistricting law providing for merger by force in 1965, but adds that "this is the law and while it is possible to change it, the law may still remain substantially the same."

RATES WILL RISE

Observing that tax rates will probably continue to rise because of the need for new educational requirements "for new kinds of jobs in the fast approaching revolution involving electronics and

MISS E. CROSS EXPIRES TODAY

Miss Effie Cross, 70, 120 N. Stratton St., died this morning about 4 o'clock at the home of Miss Vestal Stallsmith with whom she resided. She had been ill for the past six weeks.

Born in Taneytown, she was the daughter of Mrs. Nellie Millberry Cross. She was a member of the AME Zion Church and a member of the Steward's Board.

Surviving are three brothers: Clarence, Hunterstown; Guy, Washington, D. C., and Theodore, Chambersburg.

Funeral services on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Peters Funeral Home with Rev. Mrs. Lena Parr officiating. Interment will be in the Evergreen Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home on Friday evening from 7 to 9 o'clock.

Names Keim To Supreme Court

HARRISBURG (AP) — Judge Earl S. Keim of Westmoreland County was given an interim appointment to the state Supreme Court by Gov. Lawrence today, less than 24 hours after the Democratic State Committee nominated Keim to run for a full term in the Nov. 6 election.

Under the interim appointment, the 49-year-old jurist will serve until next January to fill the vacancy created by the death in May of Justice Curtis Bok.

Tragedy In Times Square

Andrew, who has an educational driver's permit, was at wheel of convertible, background, which went out of control, mounted sidewalk at 41st St. near Seventh Ave. and fatally crushed a 75-year-old woman against wall. Youth and his mother, a passenger in the car, both declined medical attention. (AP Wirephoto)

IS GRADUATED FROM MEDICAL ARTS SCHOOL

Miss Lucille Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul L. Miller, R. 5, Gettysburg, was one of 22 to graduate from the Harrisburg Institute of Medical Arts Wednesday evening at graduating exercises held at the Penn Harris Hotel, Harrisburg.

Rev. Dr. Sheridan A. Bell, pastor of the Grace Methodist Church, Harrisburg, spoke on "Sanctuary of the Soul." Dr. James Bloom, president of the institute, presided at the ceremonies and presented the diplomas. Msgr. Damian E. McGovern, Chancellor for the Diocese of Harrisburg, delivered the invocation and benediction. The Harrisburg Institute of Medical Arts chorus sang several selections.

Miss Miller, a graduate of Gettysburg High School with the class of 1960, will be employed at the

MISS MILLER

Annie Warner Hospital as a lab technician.

Those attending the ceremonies from Gettysburg were her parents, brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Shetter, New Oxford, and Mr. and Mrs. William Stallsmith, grandparents, Orrtanna.

$160 Damage When Car Hits Truck

Damage totaled $160 when a dump truck and a car collided four miles west of Fairfield at Zora Wednesday morning at 11:50 o'clock.

State police said the truck, driven by William J. Furney, 64, Gettysburg R. 4, was attempting to drive into the line of traffic from a halted position when it collided with a sedan operated by John Cordell Dorcus, Woodboro, Md. Damage was estimated at $150 to the car and $10 to the truck.

Files Opinion In Karl Stello Case

The Adams County Court today handed down an opinion in the charges against Karl H. Stello, Gettysburg R. D., finding Stello guilty on all counts.

The opinion follows a trial some time ago of charges of driving a car without being licensed as an operator, failing to yield the right of way and operating a vehicle with improper registration plates. Stello was found guilty at the time of the trial by the court but the opinion is filed in "compliance with Rule 63 of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania," according to the heading of the opinion.

Stello had appealed the decision of the county court.

National Anthem Illegal As Prayer; May Be Read, Sung, Recited In Public

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—Use of the Star-Spangled Banner as an official school prayer is illegal but, as the national anthem, it may be sung, read, and recited in public schools, the state education commissioner says.

In a formal ruling, Commissioner James E. Allen Jr., also said that schools could set aside periods of silence for meditation in place of spoken prayers.

He added that there was no objection to teaching about religions in public schools, although he said the teaching of religion was unconstitutional.

Allen's decision was taken as an official statement of the State Education Department position in the wake of the U. S. Supreme Court's opinion that barred use of official prayers in public schools in New York.

The commissioner had indicated that his ruling in the case involving the Star-Spangled Banner would attempt to provide guides for school boards on what was permissible under the Supreme Court decision.

After the court ruling, the Hicksville Board of Education on Long Island had designated the last stanza of the Star-Spangled Banner as a school prayer. It contains the words, "in God is our trust."

Allen held that the board's action was contrary to the view of the court. The fact that it was officially adopted by the board, he said, made it an official prayer and thus illegal.

KOWALCZYK IS LITTLESTOWN POLICE CHIEF

Littlestown borough council lifted the probation of Edward T. Kowalczyk and appointed him chief of police effective immediately at their regular meeting Tuesday evening in the community building with President Lewis H. Fox presiding.

Treasurer John H. Flickinger reported borough funds balances as of July 31 as follows: General borough funds $17,317.75; water fund, $42,150.22 and sanitary sewer fund, $51,643.

Borough fund expenditures during the month were $6,102.42; water fund expenditures, $1,461.38, and sanitary sewer fund expenditures, $1,001.28. State highway aid expenditures were $1,955.96, making total expenditures $10,521.04. Total miscellaneous receipts of $513.08 were reported.

College Freshmen To Be Dinner Guests

New students from Adams County entering Gettysburg College next month will be honored at a dinner given by the Adams County Alumni Club on September 6 at 6:30 p.m. in the Lamp Post Tea Room.

Parents of the 13 incoming students have also been invited to the dinner. Special guests will be President and Mrs. C. A. Hanson.

All Gettysburg College alumni in Adams County are invited to attend. Reservations may be made with Robert Weaner, president, 244 Springs Ave.

FORFEIT FINES

The following recently forfeited fines in Westminster on motor code violation charges: Charles H. Stapleton, Gettysburg, and Robert C. Rucker, Littlestown, $6.45, exceeding 30 miles per hour; Hubert L. Joy, Emmitsburg, $11.45, exceeding 30; Thomas F. Joy, Taneytown, $6.45, improper passing; Norman H. Lawrence, Taneytown, $6.45, failed to stop at red light.

Goldberg Named To High Court Succeeding Felix Frankfurter Who Resigned

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL
WASHINGTON (AP) — Ailing Felix Frankfurter, a legal legend in his own lifetime, has handed down a final, sorrowful decision as a Supreme Court justice: to retire rather than attempt to carry on at a faltering pace.

President Kennedy immediately chose Secretary of Labor Arthur J. Goldberg to succeed the wiry, waspish little man with a big mind and a flair for piercing questions who had served on the nation's highest court for 23 years.

And the White House said a successor to Goldberg would be named promptly, too.

SUFFERED STROKE
Goldberg's top assistant, Undersecretary W. Willard Wirtz, reportedly was on the list of persons receiving consideration. Assistant Secretary Esther Peterson, who said she is not a candidate for the Cabinet vacancy, got a fast, strong endorsement from home state Sen. Frank Moss, D-Utah, as "the most capable per-

BEGIN TRIAL WITHOUT JURY IN COURT HERE

Trial without a jury began this morning in Adams County court of the fraudulent conversion charge brought by Daniel R. Barnes, Hanover, a partner of Barnes Brothers, Littlestown contractors, against Atty. Walter H. Katherman Jr., Littlestown.

Representing Katherman is Attorney Thomas McBride, Philadelphia, former state attorney general and Supreme Court justice, with Attorney Gerald Walmer as local counsel.

Testimony this morning included a detailed reading of the "escrow" account of Attorney Katherman at the Littlestown National Bank. Mrs. Jane Hornberger, Littlestown, bookkeeper at the bank, testified that Katherman had his own personal account at the bank and an escrow account. The testimony as to dates of deposits and withdrawals and the identity of those to whom checks were made was based on the escrow account.

HEAR TRUST OFFICER

At one point Albert J. Bair, trust officer for the bank, testified that Attorney Katherman and the Barnes Brothers called at the bank in December. Bair said that Attorney Katherman asked whether a check for $7,806.34 from Roy J. Fisher of Littlestown R. D., had cleared. When the answer was in the affirmative, Bair said Katherman and the Barnes Brothers went to the cashier of the bank, who then paid off a note of the Barnes brothers and gave them change from a $6,000 check given by Katherman to the Barnes brothers. Bair said he believed that the Barnes brothers could have heard his reply to Katherman that the check for $7,800 had cleared.

The charge brought by Barnes Brothers against the attorney is that Katherman collected $7,806.34 for them and then turned over only $6,000 of that amount. Subsequently Katherman gave Barnes Brothers an additional check for slightly over $200.

WILL CONDUCT CHEST DRIVE OCTOBER 15-31

The campaign committee for the 1962-63 Community Chest campaign at a luncheon at the Hotel Gettysburg Wednesday noon set the October 15-31 period for the annual drive for funds. During this period the Community Chest will attempt to raise $31,670 to support the 10 participating agencies.

Henry T. Bream, campaign chairman, advised the committee that quotas for each of the six divisions had been established based on the amounts raised last year and the potential of each area in relation to the over all goal. The quotas are as follows: Special gifts division, Atty. S. M. Raffensperger, chairman, $10,000.

Rural area divisions, Mrs. John Eisenhower, chairman, $1,800.

City residential division, Mrs. Philip Jones, chairman, $4,500.

Commercial division, Jesse Dag-enhart, chairman, $4,500.

Industrial division, Bruce Mac-hay and John Caldwell, cochairmen, $6,000.

Classified division, Dr. M. Scott Moorhead, chairman, $7,000.

REVIEWS PLANS

Bream reviewed briefly the plans for the ensuing drive and pointed out that there was a great need for better understanding among the citizens of Gettysburg in respect to the important role the health, welfare and character building agencies of the Chest play in every day lives of all citizens.

The campaign publicity will be directed by Carl Baum, advertising manager of The Gettysburg Times and R. K. Will, manager of G. C. Murphy Co. Baum advised the campaign committee that a program had been set up for the campaign and that all phases of it were in process.

The next meeting of the division chairmen will be held September 11. A full progress report will be presented at that time. The greatest need at this time is for volunteer solicitors. Both residential chairmen, Mrs. Eisenhower and Mrs. Jones, said that they have begun making initial contacts to fill their division's teams.

The Community Chest is faced with raising $1,170 more than last year's goal to meet the needs of the 10 agencies included in the campaign.

Bream said, "It will take a greater number of volunteers to do the job than we had last year. Any person interested in this community should feel willing to give a little of their time to help."

MURPHY FEELS FREEMAN WILL SUPPORT ACTS

WASHINGTON (AP) — Undersecretary of Agriculture Charles S. Murphy said today he believes he still holds Secretary Orville L. Freeman's "vote of confidence" as to his actions in the Billie Sol Estes case.

He made the statement to reporters before resuming testimony in a Senate investigation of possible influence peddling in the handling of Estes' big money farm aid deals.

"So far as surviving in my job is concerned," the undersecretary said in response to questions, "I have not the slightest doubt."

NO RESIGNATION

He said that meant he did not expect his resignation would be requested and that he did not plan to resign voluntarily.

Murphy said he based this appraisal on a talk he had Wednesday night with Freeman in which "We discussed the hearings and how they were going."

Murphy testified Wednesday that Estes, a Pecos, Tex., promoter, never received favored treatment from the Agriculture Department.

PARENTS SEEK TO TEACH GIRL IN HOME CLASS

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — Should Rosemary Sheppard go to high school or continue her education at home?

That question is an issue in a habeas corpus hearing today in district court. Technically, the case involves only whether Rosemary, 15, should continue in the custody of a sister, Naomi McNeese, or should be returned to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy C. Sheppard.

Rosemary left home Aug. 3 and went to Juvenile Court, saying she wanted to attend Webster High School instead of continuing classes under her mother. She was made a ward of the court and released to Mrs. McNeese.

HABEAS CORPUS

Mr. and Mrs. Sheppard, who have educated their children at home since 1957, objected to the custody ruling and sought the habeas corpus release of Rosemary. The Sheppards took Rosemary and her twin brother, Roy Gary, out of the third grade in 1956. The parents were convicted of violating the state's compulsory education law, but in 1957 the Court of Criminal Appeals ruled state law did not require attendance at public schools if other education was provided.

Mrs. Sheppard, a business college graduate, then began teaching the twins and another son, Ray Gene, now 13, in a classroom she and her electrician husband set up in their home.

OTHERS COMPLETE SCHOOL

Four older daughters completed public school.

Mrs. Sheppard says she prefers to teach her children because public schools make everybody conform to group thinking.

Rosemary said school was not the only issue. She said she was denied normal social activities of a teen-ager and was lonesome. And, she said in the home classes "I knew I wasn't getting what I should."

The petition to make her a ward of the court called her home life unbearable and alleged she was subjected to almost daily whippings.

Of her mother, she said, "What love I did have for her she has killed. I'm just afraid of her."

YOUTH IS LOCATED

Borough police reported today that Charles Deardorff, 17, son of Clarence Deardorff, 209 W. Middle St., reported missing by his father since last Friday had been located at the home of Harrison Arnold, in Mummaburg, where the youth appeared Wednesday. Arnold then notified borough police.

ISSUE LICENSE

A marriage license has been issued at the courthouse to Kenneth Williams Kimple, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Joseph Kimple, Orrtanna R. 1, and Patricia Ann Redding, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Edward Redding, 61 W. High St., Gettysburg.

HELD FOR COURT

Everett L. Thomas, Hot Springs, Va., was held for court on a non-support charge while a surety of the peace charge brought against him by his wife was dropped following a hearing Wednesday evening before Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder. Since Thomas is currently in jail on an assault and battery charge, he was returned to jail to appear before the court.

HUNGRY LOOTER

Mrs. Anna Shultz, 215 Chambersburg St., reported to borough police Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock that during the preceding night someone had broken in the cellar at her home and removed six quarts of peaches, nine quarts of tomatoes and 50-pound can of homemade soap.

reported tax payments of $15,621.12, including $13,858.08 in discounted real estate taxes, $1,763.04 in discounted occupation taxes. Former tax collector LeRoy W. Bish reported payment of $1,191.23 in taxes, including $1,123.50 in real estate and $67.73 in occupation taxes, both with penalties.

HEARS PETITION

Council heard a petition from W. Myrtle St. property owners regarding laying of pavements and requested that petitioners and developers secure proper "quitclaim" deed for the area involved so that improvement steps might be taken. It also heard that the state Department of Highways had approved and established "Thru Highway" status for legislative Route 230 and that signs would be posted shortly. Maitland Bros. was instructed to remedy a hazardous condition at the Park Ave. entrance to the new high school parking area. Council ordered grading to be done in the Park Ave. extension from the paved section to proposed Newark St. to eliminate weeds. The borough engineer was ordered to prepare the necessary materials for a quit claim deed for widening M. St.

Council secretary was authorized to purchase 18 Watch Dog meters rather than repair old ones because of the small difference in price. Two 2-inch meters were ordered repaired. In response to a recurring problem at the disposal plant, it was reported that a meeting of the Borough Authority in the near future would discuss steps to halt permanently accumulation of scum under the floating cover.

On the recommendation of Councilman Walter C. Myers, the group voted to erect street lights at the northern intersection of Crouse Park with Park Ave. Street light installations on W. Myrtle St. and Maryland Aves. were postponed.

23 BUILDING PERMITS

Twenty-three building permits were reported issued, covering a wide range of construction and repair.

Council accepted the recommendation of Councilman Howard O. Myers that, in appreciation of the work of the Jaycees on the playground, borough employees be instructed to complete grading, the sliding board and tennis courts by the end of September. A sum of $200 was voted to undertake necessary tree trimming in Crouse Park.

The resignation of Mrs. Marilyn S. Zanger was accepted with regret, effective September 23. A proposed working hour schedule which would increase the working hours of remaining employees without rehiring an employee to replace Mrs. Zanger will be put in effect following the end of her employment.

A motion to add more parking meters on E. King St. was defeated. The Safety Committee, Mayor and Police Department were ordered to meet with school authorities to determine where safety walks should be painted across the highway. The secretary was instructed to obtain prices for an overhead traffic signal light at Center Square. An ordinance establishing E. Myrtle St. from Maple Ave. to the eastern side of Park Ave. as a through traffic street was adopted and ordered advertised.

Parking signs were ordered erected on either side of Lumber St. from the first alley east of and parallel to S. Queen St. eastward along properties owned by Lloyd E. Crouse.

Police Chief Kowalczyk reported 21 overtime parking violations, two no parking zone and five against traffic violations. Code violations were: Four reckless driving, one flashing light, two red light, two stop sign, three speeding, one muffler, one too fast for conditions, one failure to stop in event of accident, one driving under the influence, one one operating without a licensed driver. Investigations included four accidents, three government, four outside agencies, three civil, three criminal, five miscellaneous and two juvenile. Other activities included five faulty equipment warnings, one summons served, four warrants served, three commitments, 10 funeral escorts and 24 bank and payroll escorts. Meter collections were $630.48.

All members of the council were present.

BURAS PUPILS DEFY CATHOLIC SCHOOL STAND

By BEN THOMAS

BURAS, La. (AP)—The second day of classes at Our Lady of Good Harbor Catholic school—desegregated Wednesday—started today with only 17 white children. None of the five Negroes, who became the first of their race to attend white Catholic elementary schools in Louisiana, appeared when school started.

The Rev. Christopher Schneider, brown-robed Franciscan pastor of the nearby Catholic church, escorted the white children into the new brick school building.

OTHER WHITES ARRIVE

Shortly after classes started eight more white children entered the school, making a total of 25 white pupils.

Father Schneider, asked if any Negroes were expected for future classes, replied: "I just can't say."

A crowd of nearly 100 white persons gathered outside the school. Many carried placards protesting the desegregation, which was ordered last spring by Archbishop Joseph Francis Rummel for the entire 11-parish Archdiocese of New Orleans.

Excommunicated political leader Leander H. Perez Sr. had predicted a total white boycott of the Catholic school. All the pupils today came from the Boothville-Venice area south of Buras, which spectators said is an anti-Perez community.

The Roman Catholic hierarchy picked this town in the heart of Perez' political domain near the mouth of the Mississippi River for the first parochial school desegregation in Louisiana.

Perez, president of the Plaquemines Parish (county) Council after years as district attorney and judge, was expelled from the Roman Catholic Church last spring. An ardent segregationist, he urged defiance of Archbishop Rummel's directive.

The school had about 340 white pupils last year.

Hoover Awaits Test Decision

NEW YORK (AP)—In discomfort after a major operation—sweating it out while hospital pathologists work in the laboratory to determine whether his intestinal tumor was cancerous—Herbert Hoover, 88, still can make a joke.

"There will be no canasta tonight," he called out to his two sons—Herbert Jr. and Allan—left his hospital room after a 15-minute visit Wednesday.

The test brought a laugh all around.

DEDICATED PLAYER

Hoover is a dedicated canasta player, and often played with Allan and his wife, Margaret.

The widowed ex-president's head surgeon, Dr. Rudolph N. Schullinger, reported in a bulletin at Columbia Presbyterian Medical Center last night that the patient continues to improve.

"Although Mr. Hoover is in some discomfort, his condition remains satisfactory and his spirits are good," the bulletin continued. "There will be no pathological conclusion (as to whether the tumor was cancerous) at present. It will be released in three weeks."

The tumor was removed in a three-hour operation Tuesday.

IRS Is Opposed To Barber Trading Haircuts For Set Of Dentures; Demands Tax

KANSAS CITY (AP) — The income tax people are putting the bite on Dale Gasper on account of his false teeth. He traded haircuts for the dentures.

The 25-year-old barber got a bill for $45.07 Wednesday, two days after a go-round of more than two hours with Internal Revenue Service agents.

When Gasper arrived at the tax office for the interview, in response to a letter headed "Reexamination of Income Tax Return" the first agent he encountered had a year-old newspaper clipping. It told how Gasper, having bad teeth and little money, got a dentist to make him a set of uppers in return for haircuts.

"They said I had gained extra income by barter," Gasper related.

"One dentist wanted to give me the teeth. I told him I didn't want charity. I asked the agent what would have happened if I had taken the free teeth—could they tax them. He said, 'No, that would have been a gift.'"

"So I said maybe I am a good friend of this dentist who made my teeth and he gave them to me. Then, because we're friends, I wanted to give him some haircuts. Aren't those gifts?"

"The agent said he could check and see whether the dentist and I were good friends.

"So I said: 'You mean I can't cut any hair for free. I've got four boys and I cut their hair.' He said I had a point there, but he'd have to check."

TOMATOES FOR HAIRCUT

"I told him about a man who came into the barbershop with a basket of tomatoes and asked me if I'd cut his hair. He needed a haircut, so I did. I suggested to the agents that we'd better include the basket of tomatoes as income. They said I was being overly technical."

Gasper volunteered that his dentist calculated the uppers, plus some fillings in his lowers, came to $251. But Gasper insisted he was entitled to deduct wear and tear on his clippers and shears, plus commissions to the shop owner.

The agents agreed and discounted the dental work to $225.40.

"I wasn't trying to beat the government," said Gasper. "I just thought it was an even swap."

Fireworks, Races At Oval Saturday

Saturday night's racing program at Lincoln Speedway is made to order for the ambitious pilot who is out to improve his point standing among the regular lads at the Pigeon Hills oval.

Racing gets underway at 8 p.m. with points up for grabs in two 20-lap features being staged for the sportsman-modified drivers.

The regular slate of two 10-lap heats will proceed the big events. Stoverstown's Gene Goodling still leads all comers with total tallies of 1,455 and close on the York County lad's heels is another Lincoln regular from Maryland — Randallstown's Pee Wee Poblets — with an accumulation of 1,300 credits.

The strictly stock lads will continue to run the regular card with two 10-lap heats, the coney and the main event.

Promoter Hilly Rife has a pre-holiday intermission program lined up that will feature the Lincoln fireworks display. For years the 'big sparklers' have been attracting even the nonracing enthusiast to the area half-mile track.

MOTORIST IS KILLED

BINGHAMTON, N.Y. (AP)—Jan Engel of Binghamton was killed early today and another young man was injured critically when their automobile smashed into a culvert along a county road about four miles south of the city.

Engel, 21, recently was discharged from the Navy. Gary English, 22, also of Binghamton, who was reported in critical condition at Binghamton General Hospital, recently was discharged from the Army.

The Hashemite-Saudi feud dates from the late 19th century when both fought for supremacy over the Arab Peninsula. In the early 1920s, Saud's father, the late King Ibn Saud, succeeded in driving Hussein's grandfather, the late King Abdullah, out of what has become a great desert oil empire of the Saudis. The British later set Abdullah up as monarch over independent Jordan and installed his brother, Feisal I, as king of neighboring Iraq.

learning and judicial dedication with which you have served your country over the last 23 years." It was characteristic, he said, that Frankfurter had taken the judgment of his doctors and "set it sternly against your own demanding standard of judicial effectiveness."

Goldberg happened to be at the White House about that time. The President was sending him to Chicago to try to head off a strike of telegraphers against the Chicago and North Western Railway, and they had been talking about the dispute.

Kennedy, an aide said, told the secretary of Frankfurter's retirement, discussed the question of a successor offered Goldberg the position and received an immediate acceptance.

Goldberg is 54, greying, usually smiling, always bouncing around with seemingly unflagging energy. He was among those mentioned for the Supreme Court at the time Kennedy made his first appointment to the tribunal, that of Deputy Atty. Gen. Byron R. White.

Both Frankfurter and Goldberg are Jews. Both came from immigrant stock. Both battled their way upward. Both battled, too, for unpopular causes they felt were right.

But Frankfurter's legal background was largely that of the Harvard professor.

Goldberg's 30 years of law were largely in the labor field. He had a key role in the merger of the AFL and CIO.

In Congress, words of regret that failing health had forced Frankfurter to retire were coupled with generous appraisals of Goldberg.

Senate Republican leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois—Chicago is Goldberg's home town—said the Cabinet member "measures up to every standard required for a place on the Supreme Court."

A number of Democrats were equally ready with applause.

The Hashemite-Saudi feud dates from the late 19th century when both fought for supremacy over the Arab Peninsula. In the early 1920s, Saud's father, the late King Ibn Saud, succeeded in driving Hussein's grandfather, the late King Abdullah, out of what has become a great desert oil empire of the Saudis. The British later set Abdullah up as monarch over independent Jordan and installed his brother, Feisal I, as king of neighboring Iraq.

JUDGE KEIM SELECTED FOR HIGH COURT

HARRISBURG (AP) — Judge Earl S. Keim of Westmoreland County set his sights today on election to the State Supreme Court, bolstered by the unanimous endorsement of the 113-member Democratic State Committee.

As expected, Keim was named by the committee Wednesday as its candidate to oppose Republican Judge Samuel J. Roberts of Erie County next November for a full 21-year term on the high court.

The winner will step into the $32,500-a-year post Jan. 1. Meanwhile, Gov. Lawrence has left little doubt he will name the sandy-haired Keim to serve an interim appointment until that time.

The need for a new Supreme Court justice was created last May by the death of Judge Curtis Bok, a Philadelphia Democrat. His death left the court with an even political split of three Democrats and three Republicans.

GOP HAS ROBERTS

Judge Roberts, 55, and a member of Erie County Orphans Court, captured the Republican nomination earlier.

Keim had no opposition for the Democratic nomination. True, several names had been mentioned, but his was the only one put before the committee.

His first comment after receiving the nod was:

"Before anyone changes his mind, I accept."

He also told newsmen he would accept the interim appointment if offered.

The 49-year-old jurist is a native of Youngwood, Pa., a law graduate of Duquesne University and a Navy veteran of World War II and the Korean conflict.

He was appointed to the court in Westmoreland County on April 12, 1958, and elected to a full 10-year term the following year. He also served several years as district attorney and assistant district attorney in Westmoreland County. He is married and the father of a 13-year-old son.

DO CAMPAIGNING

The Democrats also used the occasion of the special meeting for some campaigning, piping in statements from the party's gubernatorial and senatorial candidates by a special telephone hookup with a loudspeaker system.

Richardson Dilworth, the candidate for governor, spoke from a coffee klatch in Upper Darby, while U.S. Sen. Joseph Clark, who is seeking re-election talked from his office in Washington.

Both welcomed Keim to the ticket.

But it was Lawrence who delivered the most fiery oration, rapping what he called the "big money men of the Republican party."

Claiming that Republicans will run two fund-raising dinners with mandatory contributions of at least $1,000 from each diner, Lawrence declared:

"This is one of the boldest and most dastardly steals in this state. They're going to buy this election."

$3 MILLION FIRE DAMAGE

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Exhausted firefighters battled stubborn flareups today on brushfires raging throughout California, amid warnings the state is a tinderbox.

The U.S. Forest Service cautioned that conditions may get worse over the Labor Day weekend. Six fires already have charred 42,000 acres since Sunday.

In Southern California, gusty winds threatened to carry sparks outside the lines of twin blazes which have burned more than 17,000 acres in rugged mountains on the northern outskirts of Los Angeles.

The Los Angeles County fire chief, Keith Klinger, estimated damage at more than $3 million.

"We have one of the fires 80 per cent contained and another 60 per cent contained," a fire official said.

A late weather forecast called for an influx of moist sea air which might enable firemen to fully contain the blazes by tonight, he added.

NEW YORK (AP)—Singer Jane Morgan left Roosevelt Hospital Wednesday and blamed her collapse Monday on working all that day without food during a recording session.

She said she was planning to go to bed early to leave the next morning for an engagement in Syracuse, N.Y., when "all of a sudden I must have blacked out."

RANGOON, Burma (AP)—Burma will receive $34 million from the U.S. Agency for International Development for agricultural machinery to open up 30,000 acres a year to rice production, the Burmese government announced today.

The bridegroom chose his brother-in-law, Kenneth Richards, Wyoming City, Mich., for his best man. Francis McMaster, McSherrystown, cousin of the bride, and Michael Cummings, Chicago, Ill., a friend, served as ushers.

A reception was held in the Brushstown Athletic Hall. The couple left on a wedding trip through the midwestern states. For going away, the bride wore a beige dress with white accessories. Mr. and Mrs. Eastman will reside at 1440 St., Wyoming, Mich.

The bride was graduated from Delone Catholic High School with the class of 1959 and had been employed in the office of Dr. Richard B. Bortner, Hanover. Her husband attended Kelloggsville High School, served three years in the U.S. Army, and is presently employed by Fred's Trading Post, Grand Rapids, Mich.

Winebrenner—Garrett

Miss Judith V. Garrett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard B. Garrett, Hanover, became the bride of Andrew S. Winebrenner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Winebrenner, Hanover, R. 1, Saturday in the First Methodist Church, Hanover. The Rev. Elwood L. Bair performed the double-ring ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Winebrenner will reside in Hanover.

Stanley Hoffman, (left) Gettysburg College business manager, and John Caldwell, district manager of the United Telephone Company here, are shown inspecting the intricate switching mechanism of Gettysburg College's new telephone system designed and installed by United. The new phone system placed in service recently will provide improved communications throughout the Gettysburg telephone exchange area as well as on campus.

Girl Scout News

Girl Scout Troop 744 will camp at Camp Happy Valley, near Fairfield, on September 7, 8 and 9. Leaders in charge will be Mrs. Ellen Hinkle, Mrs. Betty Kohler, Miss Nancy Smith and Mrs. Lois Baker. All Intermediate Scouts who wish to attend are asked to call the Misses Debra and Bonnie Lusk. Today is the last day to make reservations. The Scouts must attend a meeting on September 4 in the Scout room in the East Berlin elementary school at 7 p.m.

The troop hiked to Mrs. Hinkle's home Tuesday, where a farewell party was held in honor of Mrs. Pauline Baum and Miss Penny Baum.

automation," the three directors held Highland's increase would be less under a merger than under its present independent operation. The board then asks residents of the township to "compare tax rates with your friends in Freedom Twp." which is merged with Gettysburg.

Noting that two members of the Highland board had voted against submitting the question of merger to the residents of the township this year, the three sending the letter said "loss of liberty" was one of objections giving to merging.

"Loss of liberty probably means reduced representation from Highland in an enlarged merged district," the letter stated. "Since last year the business of the jointure has been conducted by a joint operating committee composed of two appointees from each district board. Each district thus has two members of the 14 members or over 14 per cent of the total representation. . . . If our merger included all districts of the system, the school board, after the transition period, would have nine members, one from each district and two at large, representing all the districts. Representation would be still 14 per cent plus. Obviously the merger passes the representation test as far as Highland is concerned."

The three board members hold that the election in November is Highland township's last chance to merge voluntarily. "If, in spite of the paramount advantages of merging, you still vote 'no,' who could even hope for a change in a third effort? So, now is the only possible opportunity in sight to secure a saving in school taxes."

HOLD HEARING IN EFFORT TO BLOCK PROBE

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A hearing on a taxpayer's suit to block city funds for the special grand jury probe of alleged scandals in City Hall was to go ahead on schedule today despite an appeal to the state Supreme Court.

Justice Benjamin R. Jones of the Supreme Court heard a one hour and 40 minute argument Wednesday night in his chambers in the Luzerne County Courthouse at Wilkes-Barre. At the midnight end of the argument, the justice agreed not to object to the proceeding before the lower court provided no ruling was made on the matter today.

President Judge Joseph E. Gold of Common Pleas Court here announced he was going ahead with the hearing in the absence of an order from Justice Jones.

HAVE PETITION

The argument before Justice Jones was on a petition by W. Wilson White form an order halting the hearing. White is the special prosecutor of the grand jury probe.

Justice Jones took the case under advisement and went to bed at his home in Dallas, near Wilkes-Barre.

White and David Berger, Philadelphia city solicitor, who also was on hand in Wilkes-Barre, both said today they did not expect any ruling from Justice Jones in advance of the start of today's Common Pleas Court session.

The taxpayer's suit was brought by Louis Lipschitz, a lawyer, on behalf of his secretary, Miss Beatrice M. Smith. Both said they were registered Republicans.

The grand jury probe was ordered by Judge Walter Alesandroni. He appointed White to head the investigation of the alleged scandals in the Democratic administration

Surprise Blackout Successful:

Adams County's 29,000 inhabitants were among the 15,000,000 persons in Pennsylvania and New Jersey who underwent a surprise blackout test Tuesday evening.

The two-state test, which was called the greatest practice drill in the nation's history, was declared by civilian defense officials as "completely satisfactory" and "very well done."

Leroy H. Winebrenner, chairman of the Gettysburg defense council said, "As far as Gettysburg was concerned all — or very nearly all — of the wardens were on their posts and the civilian defense organization system here worked 100 per cent. The only difficulty encountered was due to the negligence of persons who left lights on in homes and other buildings."

The Warner Hospital reported the birth of a child during the blackout. A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Pittinger, Westminster, during the air raid drill.

James C. Cole Passes Away:

James C. Cole, 61, lumberman, fruitgrower, farmer and for many years a leader in the Democratic party in this county, died at his home in The Narrows after an illness of six months. He was born on a farm in Menallen township on a farm adjoining the property on which he died. At the age of 28 he was the youngest member of the Pennsylvania Legislature to which he was elected for two terms in 1908 and 1910 by the voters of Adams County. His father had served in the General Assembly in 1888 and 1890. Mr. Cole served as Adams County Democratic chairman for two terms in 1930 and 1932 and in 1935 he served for a year as county sealer of weights and measures. He was one of the organizers and for many years a director of the Arendtsville National Bank. He is survived by his widow, the former Mildred Hildebrand, and three children. Two brothers and three sisters also survive.

Dr. Gifford To Enter Service:

Dr. Roy W. Gifford, associate surgeon at the Warner hospital, has been commissioned as a captain in the Medical Corps and has been ordered to report on September 4 to the Commanding General of the Third Service Command. Dr. Gifford came to Gettysburg July 1, 1929, and engaged in the practice of medicine here until October 1, 1938, when he withdrew from general practice to take up surgical duties at the hospital here. He is the fifth Gettysburg doctor to enter the armed forces.

Sergeant Flynn Arrives Overseas:

Mrs. Noel Flynn received word today from the War Department that her husband, Sergeant G. Noel Flynn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Flynn, had arrived safely overseas. It is not known where the local soldier is but it is believed that he was in the large convoy that reached England over the weekend. He was attached to the 51st Medical Battalion.

To Open Warehouse:

Robert A. Thompson, manager of the G. R. Thompson and Son warehouse, Carlisle street, announced today that he will discontinue operating the warehouse here on September 1 and will open his own warehouse at Seven Stars at that time. Mr. Thompson has been at the local warehouse for 15 years.

Gilbert Reen Resigns:

Professor C. Gilbert Reen, member of the Gettysburg College faculty since he graduated from that institution in 1920, has resigned to accept a position at Pennsylvania State College as supervisor of engineering mechanics and civil engineering subjects for the war training courses given by the college through its extension department. He will report at State College on September 10. His family will follow later.

Today's Talk

WHAT A DIFFERENCE THE LIGHT MAKES!

We are influenced by things that in themselves, are not so very great. For instance, we arise in the morning and see no sunshine. Clouds are all above, hiding the sun. But soon these clouds part — and the sun streams to the earth.

Where there were darkness and few color values, just the minute the sun leaped upon them, everything changed to beauty. And nothing more occurred than the parting of a few clouds.

Our entire body is influenced by the merest happenings — even to the circulation of our blood. A bad piece of news, or news that makes us exceedingly happy. Like the sun streaming in upon us, as to the latter.

What a difference the light makes. A cheerful personality is one of the gifts from Heaven. The groucher is never welcomed, whereas he who is able to life another by his smile or faith is beloved by all.

He who is able to absorb the shocks of life, to conceal its hurts, to overlook its falsities, to drink in its beauties as so much clear, clean water, is surely one of the noble figures of earth.

To such a human being, the days of darkness and of light are but coloring in the backgrounds of his heart. He remembers the golden beauty of the shadows washed by the rays of light. He does not forget the open rose after its rich petals and leaves have become memories upon the ground beneath.

The earth is just as beautiful in the darkness, but it takes the light to make us think so.

It is the same with human beings. So often it takes the light and laughter of another to wipe out the shadows and darkness that are so evident in some people who so often shy at the light of the world.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Talents"

Just Folks

SUMMER'S END

Roses took a little weary in the blazing August sun.

Like old people calmly resting with their labors almost done.

Here and there a pink or crimson little blossom comes to birth.

But its petals are so fragile that they quickly fall to earth.

Now their youth is all behind them and the season's growth is made.

Soon upon their leafy foreheads will the touch of frost be laid;

But serene and calm and patient 'neath the weight of age they stay.

Sweet gray grandfolds of the garden watching summer slip away.

Still the marigold and asters toss their splendors round about,

As though health and strength and daring never weary or give out.

And they seem to mock the roses who would go to rest so soon,

But of course they never see them at their loveliest in June.

Britain, where the previous message "killed on active service" has darkened countless households, offered understanding sympathy today to her royal family, bereaved by the death of the Duke of Kent, King George's youngest brother, on a wartime mission.

The Duke, fifth in order of succession to the throne, died in the line of duty when the Sunderland Flying boat which was taking him to Ireland for the RAF crashed in northern Scotland. All 15 persons in the plane were killed and their bodies recovered.

Air Field Commandant: Colonel John M. Weikert, son of Mr. and Mrs. William P. Weikert, McKnightstown, is commandant of the newest United States Air Field dedicated this week near West Point for Cadet fliers. Colonel Weikert has been in the Air Corps ever since his graduation from West Point in 1923. He has graduated from all the major air courses in the country, has a distinguished flying record and is highly rated as an instructor. He is a graduate of Gettysburg High School and attended Gettysburg College before entering West Point.

Gettysburg Clinches SP Title; Two Post-Season Playoff Games Sunday

Gettysburg clinched the regular season title of the South Penn Baseball League by defeating Littlestown 8-3 Wednesday evening before a large crowd at Littlestown.

Manager "Skip" Fisel's outfit finished the regular season in a triple tie for first place with New Oxford and Littlestown and downed New Oxford 8-7 before jolting Littlestown to clinch the title.

The annual Shaughnessy post-season playoffs between the top four teams will open on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock when New Oxford will play at Gettysburg while Fairfield plays at Littlestown. The semifinal and title series will both be best-of-three affairs.

Clyde Crouse got Littlestown off to a good start Wednesday when he poled a home run into the center field bleachers in the second inning.

ERRORS, WALKS HELP

Gettysburg bounced back with four runs in the fourth. Bob Decker was safe on a double error and moved to third on a wild pitch. Fisel walked. Bob Hinds lofted to center, Decker scoring following the catch. Vance Johnston singled Fisel home. Walks to Tom Shields, Guise, Orner and Earl Little forced home Johnston and Shields.

A single by Jim Gilbert, walk to Little and doubles by Decker and Fisel produced three more Gettysburg tallies in the sixth.

Littlestown got a run in the sixth after two were out on a single by Bruce Stair, stolen base, and an error on Knipple's grounder. The final Littlestown run in the seventh resulted on a double by Don Kump and single by Dick Bankert.

Gettysburg's last tally in the ninth came when Fisel was safe on an error, advanced on a pair of outs, and ran home when Shields singled.

Old-timers Will Play At Dillsburg

An Old Timers' baseball game will be played at Dillsburg Friday evening at 6 o'clock.

Dillsburg, a member of the West Shore League, has had many Adams Countians play for it in past years and many are expected to be on hand to play for the Old Timers.

DEVINE STAYS

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Bing Devine will continue as general manager of the skidding St. Louis Cardinals, it was announced after a five-hour conference with club owner August A. (Gussie) Busch Jr. Wednesday.

The 45-year-old Devine, who succeeded Frank Lane as general manager five years ago, never has operated under contract. He will continue on the same basis.

LITTLE LEAGUE HAS A WORLD ALL ITS OWN

EDITOR'S NOTE—K you're having trouble understanding your own Little League, you might get a better understanding from this story, written by Jim Becker after covering the Little League World Series in Williamsport last week.

By JIM BECKER
Associated Press Sports Writer
WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. (AP)—Little League baseball is played in a 12-year-old world that no adult can ever really penetrate.

It is a world of sudden crying jags, which disappear as quickly as they come and for as little evident reason. There is brutal honesty and a deep-felt tenderness toward their other residents and a crisis every half-hour where life is either too much to bear or too good to be true.

When the best baseball players in the world for their age square off on a diamond scaled down to 12-year-old proportions, adults are allowed to watch, but not really to enter into the proceedings.

FEW FORMALITIES

Twelve-year-old boys waste little time on the formalities of the older world.

If a Little League tells you that another one is a better ball player than he is, don't argue with him. He knows, and there is no sham him. That comes at a later age.

He will tell the other Little League the same thing.

He sees no disgrace in losing 22-1, or winning by the same score, although the adults in the stands may cringe at the sight and worry about the scars such a beating must leave on his psyche. Obviously, it doesn't leave any.

He may talk baseball all day, or he may talk about the sky, or frogs or Indian head pennies.

There will be a crisis every half-hour in his world, but his memory span appears to be shorter than that. You can't be sure, and you'll never know. You can watch, but you can't come in. You're not welcome.

CLEVELAND SPANKS YANKS IN TWIN BILL

Cleveland's seventh-place Tribe beat Ralph Houk's reeling New York Yankees twice 3-2 and 9-5 Wednesday. It was the Indians' fourth doubleheader sweep over New York this season and gave them 11 victories in 17 games with the flailing Bombers.

More importantly, it made eight losses in the last 10 games for the Yankees.

Star right-hander Camilo Pascual won for the first time since afflicted with a sore elbow a month ago as Minnesota took its fourth in a row, 5-3 over Chicago, and moved into second place — two games back of New York.

Kansas City trimmed Los Angeles 6-0 on Orlando Pena's three-hit pitching, but the Angels inched up a half game on the Yankees and are three games off the pace.

ORIOLES WIN

Baltimore cut loose for a 9-3 romp over Washington. The Detroit Tiger-Red Sox doubleheader at Boston was rained out.

The Indians settled the opener at Yankee Stadium with a tauto of four straight singles off southpaw reliever Bud Daley after two were out in the eighth inning. Hits by Tito Francona, Willie Kirkland and John Romano broke a 1-1 tie and Woody Held drove across what proved the clincher. Roger Maris homered in the last of the eighth and hit no. 31 in the second game.

JERRY LUCAS HAS CONTRACT WITH NEW PAIR

CLEVELAND (AP)—Two young Cleveland businessmen who are novices in the world of sports have a verbal contract for the services of All-America Jerry Lucas and hope to bring a National Basketball Association franchise to the city in 1963.

Howard Marks, 33, head of an advertising agency, announced Wednesday that Lucas had agreed to a 3-year contract which would give the three-time All-America from Ohio State "well over $140,000."

In another development, George Steinbrenner announced that his Pipers will not play this season. Lucas held a 2-year, $60,000 contract with the Pipers, but he became a free agent when Steinbrenner failed to get American Basketball League the club into the NBA.

MONEY PROBLEM

Steinbrenner blamed money problems for the loss of the Cleveland franchise in the ABL. He said the Pipers lost close to $200,000 last season when they won the league championship, and "we realized it was hopeless to continue."

With Marks in the venture is Carl Glickman, 36, a real estate investor and developer.

They also are dickering to buy the Cleveland Arena and had tried to help Steinbrenner save the NBA franchise he had obtained earlier by offering to put up the money. But the NBA declared the Cleveland franchise defunct when Steinbrenner failed to meet financial requirements for admission to the league.

Jersey Team Moves Up In Tourney Play

WICHITA, Kan. (AP)—Ed Henderson pitched a three-hitter for his third victory and Red Bank, N.J., won its third game by defeating Indianapolis, Ind., 6-2 Wednesday night in the National Non-Pro Baseball Tournament.

Red Bank advanced to the fifth round with a 3-1 record and the Indiana champions were eliminated from the double-elimination affair.

Grand Rapids, Mich., advanced undefeated to the fourth round, rapping Greensboro, N.C., 10-5 for its third straight victory.

The game was tied 3-3 when Grand Rapids rallied for five runs in the fourth inning. Pitcher Dick Klunder's three-run homer highlighted the rally.

Folley Wins By KO Against Gonzales

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—Zora Folley, the world's third-ranked heavyweight, knocked out Al Gonzales of Odessa, Tex., in 1:55 of the fifth round Wednesday night. Folley weighed 200, Gonzales, 191. A crowd of about 2,000 watched the bout.

Folley, of Chandler, Ariz., started slowly, but quickened the pace in the second round and had Gonzales back-pedaling through much of the bout.

He sent Gonzales to the canvas for a mandatory eight-count in the third round.

Folley ended the bout with two quick lefts and a right cross.

Bob Allison homered with two on, highlighting a four-run first inning that carried the Twins over the White Sox. Minnesota's early spurge against Ray Herbert came with two out on singles by Rich Rollins and

Pupil Assignments In Fairfield Are Announced

Fairfield schools will open the 1962-63 term on Sept. 5 with a full day session including cafeteria service.

Most school buses will pick up pupils at the first stops at approximately 7:15 a.m.

Fourth Grade pupils, with the exception of those living along the Orrtanna Rd., will take regular buses to the high school and will then be transferred at the high school to another bus which will transport them to the Orrtanna school. The Fourth Graders who live along the Orrtanna Rd. will be picked up at approximately 8:20 to 8:30 a.m.

On the following assignments of pupils to buses, if the pupil's name is marked with a C it means that he is assigned to the consolidated building; if the name is marked with an F it means that he is assigned to the Fairfield building.

The assignments follow:

ORTTANNA

URGE GO-SLOW ON RESTORING FISH TO STATE

HARRISBURG (AP)—A pair of West Coast fishways experts proposed Wednesday a go-slow approach to restoring shad to the Upper Susquehanna River.

They conceded an element of doubt that the shad—once pulled from the river in Pennsylvania by the thousands—ever can be restored to the river.

But, they expressed their own opinion, based on nearly two years of research, that fish can be passed through the four dams on the Lower Susquehanna.

They recommended a series of steps over a period of years to carry out their program. Each step would depend upon the success of the one before it.

TRANSPORT FISH

As a start, the experts—Milo C. Bell, Mukilteo, Wash., consulting engineer, and Harlan B. Holmes, consulting biologist of Portland, Ore. — proposed that shad be transported from below the dam at Conowingo, Md., to above the dam at York Haven, Pa.

These are the southernmost (Conowingo) and northernmost dams over the 54-mile stretch of river that includes two other dams, at Safe Harbor and Holtwood in Pennsylvania.

The purpose of the first step would be to determine whether shad will spawn above York Haven, migrate through the four dams to the sea and then return for the spawning season in the spring.

EXPERIMENT SPAWNING

A second step would be to experiment with spawning between Conowingo and its nearest neighbor, Holtwood. At the same time, some of the fish released between the two dams would be re-trapped and transported above York Haven.

A third step would be installation of permanent fishways at Conowingo. At the same time, the trapping and hauling operation at Holtwood would be increased.

Bell and Holmes offered three plans for a fishway at Conowingo: Fish ladder, a combination of fish ladder and truck hauling, and a combination of fish ladder and fish hoist.

FINAL STEP

A fish ladder on the right bank, by the power house, would cost an estimated $897,850; one on the left bank, $481,885.

A combination of fish ladder and facilities for trapping the fish and hauling them by truck upriver would cost an estimated $703,863.

The experts estimated the cost of a fish hoist at between $820,514 and $842,853, depending upon the type.

The fourth and final step in the program would be completion of fish passageways at the other three dams.

At both Holtwood and Safe Harbor they offered the same three proposals as at Conowingo. They would cost between $553,000 and $865,688.

BARRIER DAMS

The experts noted that barrier dams may be needed at Conowingo and Holtwood to help control the movement of fish. Built below the dams, they would be designed to offset the flow of water over the spillways. The dams would cost between $1.5 and $1.9 million each.

At York Haven, the oldest of the four dams—it was built in 1904—the experts recommended three fish ladders, at a total cost of $334,950. There would be one at the left side of Three Mile Island, one on the right side of Three-mile Island, and one at the powerhouses of the Metropolitan Edison Co. and International Paper Co.

The experts also considered the possibility of a canal enabling the fish to bypass the lower three dams. The estimated cost was $8,726,212.

They recommended this idea be set aside "until it can be proved that fish passage systems at each structure would not give equally satisfactory fish passage conditions at less cost."

KIDS PLAY ON SCHOOL ROOF

ARTESIA, N.M. (AP)—When the 460 atomic-age youngsters at Abo elementary school take a recess, they play on the roof.

Classes started Tuesday at the nation's only underground school. The only dangers in playing on the roof are the usual skinned knees, bumped foreheads and cut thumbs. The roof is at ground level.

Two basketball courts, hopscotch lanes and benches dot the 21-inch concrete slab playground. The 18 air-conditioned classrooms, 13-feet-9-inches below the surface, will double as fallout shelter.

The school cost $468,623. Civil defense paid $131,943 of that amount.

As a fallout shelter, the building will accommodate 2,000 persons for two weeks.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Peace Corps said Tuesday 1,508 of its volunteers are scheduled to leave for overseas assignments in 25 countries within the coming month. This will double the number of Peace Corpemen in the field.

Campaign Debates Sway Voters But Tactics Are Still Aimed At Jugular

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP)—Gertrude Stein called Ezra Pound a village explainer but that was in the days before television and radio had turned America into one big village where millions could hear the same explanation.

President Kennedy and former Vice President Richard M. Nixon, in their 1960 campaign debates on television, were in a very real sense village explainers of their positions.

They managed to keep their discussion on a fairly high and unemotional plane so that afterwards the viewers were able to discuss calmly such things as Nixon's makeup, Kennedy's lack of it, whether one of them looked more tired than the other and some of the issues they talked about.

PAIRED DEBATES

In time candidates for office in every election all over America no doubt will be appearing singly or in paired debates to do explaining.

Because this will be a new experience in politics—since the candidates can't tell who's watching them or what the reaction is—the candidates will probably in the beginning try to keep their discussions on a calm and even elevated plateau.

The novelty of this for many politicians should wear off soon, thus enabling them to fall back like some of their political ancestors on their primal instincts and go after each other in full view of thousands or millions like a pair of alley cats.

PRIMITIVE CONDITION

If there is such a return to a primitive condition, its effect on the American voters should be fairly well determined within a few years after counting the returns at the polls on the evening of election day.

If anyone thinks it unfair to suggest that there are any politicians left with an instinct for the jugular—or prefers to think that political life in America has at last settled down in the green valley of complete decency—he does not have to go back to any further than Tuesday for evidence suggesting the contrary.

Tuesday the chairmen of the Democratic and Republican national committees performed the customary election year ritual of signing a code of fair practices for this year's congressional and state campaigns.

FAIR CAMPAIGN CODE

This code is signed under the auspices of the Fair Campaign Practice Committee, Inc., headed by Charles P. Taft of Cincinnati. The signers were Chairman John M. Bailey for the Democrats and Chairman William E. Miller for the Republicans.

It can be assumed that if it were accepted practice for political candidates never to practice anything but fair practices, the two party chairmen would never have to sign a code pledging the two parties to fairness.

Taft said his committee has already received reports from 15 states indicating that smear attempts may be made in them. He said the greatest number expected this year will be, "False accusations of softness of communism, or, conversely, of being a 'radical' rightist."

Even as the fair practices code was being signed, reporters asked a question about an attempt to smear Gov. Edmund G. Brown of California who is running for the governorship against Nixon.

This question was about the use of auto bumper stickers in California saying "Is Brown Pink?" Miller said he was sure Nixon's organization had nothing to do with it.

ARREST 3 FOR FRISKING COPS

CHAMBERSBURG, Pa. (AP)—Three Franklin County teenagers have been turned over to juvenile authorities on charges of disarming two Chambersburg police officers, then driving off in their patrol car.

The youngsters were arrested Wednesday night Chambersburg officials declined to identify them because of their ages.

Tuesday morning the three were stopped in a car by Patrolmen Herbert Clugston and Jack Brown for running red lights.

When the two officers found the car was stolen, they immediately herded the three youths into the back seat of their patrol car to take them to the station.

Suddenly one of the boys whipped out a pistol from beneath his shirt and ordered Clugston and Brown to surrender their revolvers. Then the trio drove off in the patrol car, leaving the officers standing on the street.

Later, they abandoned the patrol car and fled in another stolen car, authorities said.

Eddie Arcaro won the last three runnings of the Woodward, a $100,000 stake race held each fall at Aqueduct. The retired rider won four of the eight runnings.

PRESS CONTROL LIMITS CUBAN NEWS STORIES

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Facts about what goes on in Cuba are hard to come by these days.

An important factor is that the press in Cuba is fully controlled by the Fidel Castro regime. Every newsman working for a Cuban paper knows what he must and must not write. The result is a sterile press that usually throws little light on what goes on.

Even so, statements in Havana newspapers often provide indications of basic situations existing in such problems as housing and the food supply, and U.S. reporters can follow up these leads to some extent.

NUMBER LIMITED

The number of such reporters is strictly limited. The Associated Press, for example, has only one non-Cuban reporter working in Cuba. Applications for visas to send in other reporters are turned down or ignored.

Only a token number of visiting correspondents are allowed each month—usually one or two. Most of these represent newspapers or radio and television networks.

The correspondents able to work in Cuba find most official doors closed to them. When they do have news to report, they often cannot get it out of Havana. Long distance calls are frequently cut off with the explanation, "I'm sorry, sir, the New York party hung up." Cables often disappear if they displease a supervisor checking all incoming and outgoing messages at the telegraph office. Wording is sometimes changed in cables that clear Havana.

EXPLOIT NEWS

An exception to these circumstances arises when the government wants to exploit some kind of news.

Despite the Cuban censorship, many of the trends of the Castro regime have been fully reported to the outside world. Some of the facts come out of diplomatic reports, which are not subject to scrutiny before transmission. The thousands of refugees leaving Cuba also provide much information. But often this is colored by wishful thinking, so it must be weighed carefully.

STATE COUNCIL WILL RECEIVE SCHOOL PLANS

HARRISBURG (AP)—Pennsylvania's first county-wide school district reorganization plans will be put before the state Council of Education for final approval Sept. 6, state school officials announced Wednesday.

The plans were submitted by school districts in Cameron, Fayette, Tioga, Forest, Pike, Monroe and Sullivan counties.

The state Department of Public Instruction said the plans are the first to reach this stage since the state's mandatory school district reorganization law was passed in 1961.

8 OTHER COUNTIES

Dr. Herbert Bryan, director of the department's Bureau of School District Reorganization, said eight other counties may have their plans completed for the council by October.

This group, said Bryan, includes Butler, Clearfield, Fulton, Juniata, Monroe, Union, Snyder and Westmoreland.

Nearly 30 others should be ready by November, he added.

Dr. Bryan said he is "well pleased" with the general progress of school district reorganization throughout the state.

FAYETTE IS FIRST

Fayette County holds the distinction of being the first to submit a plan for school district reorganization. The plan calls for its present 12 districts to be reduced to six, with an average enrollment in each district of about 4,600 to 5,000. Purpose of the law is to create fewer, but larger school districts in the state to increase educational opportunities.

Tioga County, a seventh-class county with a thinly scattered population, has proposed reducing its districts from seven to three with the largest district to have an enrollment of 3,800, the smallest 2,500.

MANILA, Philippines (AP)—Vice President Emmanuel Pelaez said Tuesday the approval of a $73 million Philippine war damage claims bill by the U.S. Senate was "an eloquent indication of American sense of justice and fairness."

The U.S. House of Representatives earlier this year voted down the war claims bill. President Diosdado Macapagal then postponed indefinitely a scheduled state visit to the United States.

OPPOSES PAROLE OF SEX FIENDS

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Police Commissioner Albert N. Brown has complained of crimes committed by sexual deviates on parole in the wake of the slaying of a young woman.

Brown said Wednesday there is "ample evidence, physical and circumstantial," linking the death of Rita Robinson, 23, to Carl A. Blessing Jr., 25, of Trevose, Pa.

Blessing, a convicted rapist, died Monday of injuries suffered in an automobile crash. The body of Miss Robinson was found Tuesday stuffed in a plastic bag in an auto agency. Authorities said she had been assaulted and stabbed 11 times in the neck and chest with a penknife.

Brown said Blessing, a free-electrician, was killed less than 10 hours after the murder when his auto crashed into a tree.

VETERAN YORK

COP IS FREED

YORK, Pa. (AP)—Kenneth W. Lauer, a 49-year-old city police officer convicted last January of mishandling traffic fines, was cleared of the charge Wednesday by York County Common Pleas Court.

A panel of three judges, including Judge Robert I. Shadle who presided at Lauer's jury trial, overruled the original verdict on grounds the police officer was convicted on insufficient evidence.

Lauer was found guilty last Jan. 17 of embezzling $25 in traffic fines.

Shadle said the court should have granted his motion at the time to throw out the charges, but added that "in the light of the seriousness of the charge and the public interest therein, we consider the action of the trial court proper in submitting it to the jury."

Lauer has been on inactive duty since July 23, 1960, the day after he suffered a broken leg. He has applied for a disability retirement. The policeman served 14 years on the city's police force.

A Lovelier You

AUTOMATIC EXERCISE. A mature lovely asks: I despise exercising and my figure is beginning to show it. My arms and legs are losing their firmness. Would the use of an exercise machine bring back tone?

The Answer: To firm up, flaccid muscles must be vigorously and regularly exercised. They must contract and perform work.

That is why exercise of the outdoor and spot variety keep the body taut. Consistent workouts can also be recommended because they help to prevent and trim bulgy areas, stemming from slack muscles or faulty weight distribution. And of course the boost to general health must not be overlooked.

But when you have no inclination for active exercise, there is value in machines that produce active exercise automatically. The effect comes from electronic impulses that gently contract the muscles some 40 times a minute—in whatever area you desire and with no conscious effort on your part.

As a result, you relax while your muscles tighten up and gird up flesh. What you cannot expect of any machine or workout is a weight loss. Pounds can be reduced only by dieting.

In losing large amounts of weight, many women develop a flaccid condition. This could be prevented, however, were a reducer's muscles actively exercised during the dieting period. For an ideal figure, the rule of less eating and more exercising can never be side-stepped.

LOSE WITHOUT BLUES
Weep no more about excess weight! You can lose without hunger pangs, fatigue and flabby aftermaths. Just send for "Lose Without Blues," a 16-page booklet that gives delicious menus, easy spot-reducing exercises, dieting tricks, your model weight and how to maintain it. ALL IN FAMILY
NATURALIZED

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—"Now every member of my family is an American."

The words came from Sidney Temple Wednesday after he took the oath of American citizenship in naturalization ceremonies in U.S. District Court on behalf of his adopted daughters, Esther Joy, 8 months, and Juanita Grace, 22 months.

The infants were born in Costa Rica and were adopted by Temple and his wife, Gladys, while he was working for the Panama Canal Co., a government agency in the Panama Canal Zone.

Temple took a similar oath here two years ago on behalf of the couple's first adopted child, Timothy, who also was born in Costa Rica. The Temples also adopted a fourth child, Daniel Mark, 22 months, who was born in the United States.

In all, 133 persons became U.S. citizens in the ceremonies Wednesday.

SWITCH ON EAGLES

HERSHEY, Pa. (AP)—Coach Nick Skorich of the Philadelphia Eagles said today that Don Oakes, normally an offensive tackle, will be shifted to defensive right tackle against the Pittsburgh Steelers in a National Football League exhibition game here Saturday night.

CROWD ENJOYS "TWIN BEDS"

"Twin Beds," the original of the berom farces by Salisbury Field and Margaret May, which opened at the Allenberry Playhouse this week, can be termed a "howling success." The story is built around the difficulties of three couples living in a fashionable apartment house with most of the neighbors always underfoot.

William McKereghan as the Italian tenor, Signor Monti, brought howls of laughter as he romped gaily through his stage life married to the fantastic Signora Monti, portrayed by newcomer Lisa Marshall. Edward Garabrandt is seen as Harry Hawkins, with Yolandi Bartoli cast as his wife, Blanche. It is in his living room and bedroom that all the action takes place. Signor Monti comes home one evening feeling very happy after a night with the boys, gets into the Hawkins' bedroom by mistake, where Mrs. Hawkins is asleep in one of the twin beds. Through one entire scene without a word being spoken he amuses the audience as he undresses and puts on Mr. Hawkins' pajamas without taking off his derby hat or putting down his umbrella, and complicates the plot by getting into the other twin bed.

While these four had all the lines in their gusty parts, Richard Marr as Andrew Larkin, lovely Jane Farnol, Allenberry's English "curtain speech" girl, as the other couple, and Margaret Janney, assistant to Richard North Gage, the director, as Norah, the Irish maid, were exceptionally good in their supporting roles.

This is a rollicking farce but it is clean and swift moving, with vivid dialogue. — EB.

To Play For Bill Waite Title Today

SHAWNEE-on-DELAWARE, Pa. (AP)—Buddy Lutz, Reading, Pa., and George Webb, Detroit, meet Dick Weyand, Bloomfield Hills, Mich., and Bob Schmid, Winnetka, Ill., today for the championship of the 17th annual Bill Waite Memorial Golf Tournament.

Lutz and Webb, who paired to win the tourney in 1959, Wednesday defeated Don Chlampt, West Pittston, Pa., and Chuck Brethen, Detroit, 3 and 2, at Shawnee Country Club to gain the finals.

Weyand and Schmid eliminated Joe Brissom, Grosse Pointe, Mich., and Ty Porter, Northfield, Ill., 1 up.

KENNEDY SAYS ATOM TREATY IS NECESSARY

By BARRY SCHWEID

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy says the possibility of 10 or 15 nuclear powers by the end of the decade underscores the need for an enforceable treaty banning all atomic tests.

The President told his news conference Wednesday he and all the world would welcome a cessation of testing by next New Year's Day. But, he made clear, Soviet objection to international inspection dims the hopes of an agreement.

"I must point out again that in order to end testing, we must have workable international agreements," Kennedy said. "Gentlemen's agreements and moratoria do not provide the types of guarantees that are necessary."

GIVES WARNING

Kennedy warned that when one nuclear weapons goes off, "it may mean they all go off."

"Those who oppose an agreement," he said solemnly, "should consider what our security will look like at the end of the decade if we do not have the agreement."

One of the president's opening statements was on nuclear testing and he was returned to the subject again and again in a meeting with newsmen that produced these other items:

FRANKFURTER RETIRES

Associate Justice Felix Frankfurter, 79 and ill, is retiring after 23 years on the Supreme Court and Kennedy has selected Secretary of Labor Arthur J. Goldberg to fill the vacancy.

The President considers the U.S. foreign aid program "the most valuable weapon immediately at our disposal" and he finds "it very ironic that those who make the strongest speeches against Communist movements are the ones who want to cut this program the hardest."

The United States has no evidence that Russian troops have moved into Cuba and Kennedy thinks an invasion of the Communist-aligned Caribbean country would be a mistake that could lead "to very serious consequences for many people."

Kennedy said he is not familiar with any Russian proposal for a meeting in Berlin of the four occupying powers to discuss the divided city's future, but he said there will be a foreign ministers meeting before the U.N. General Assembly convenes next month.

In reply to questions on other topics, Kennedy said:

Government agencies are investigating possible dangerous side effects from the widespread use of DDT and other pesticides; farmers withholding meats and grains from the market are trying to get higher prices, not deprive consumers of their products.

Pornographic literature is "a matter of concern for parents," but about all officials can do is enforce the laws as interpreted by the courts; the United States strongly supports Cambodia's independence and neutrality; "a very critical situation" would arise if Katanga is not integrated in the Congo.

PUSH SKY FIGHT

LONDON (AP) — Lawyers for Dr. Robert A. Soblen began Wednesday their fourth fight in British Courts to save the fugitive spy from deportation to the United States and a life sentence. The 61-year-old psychiatrist and a team of four lawyers went into the Appeal Court to appeal the High Court's refusal last Friday to free him on a writ of habeas corpus.

TEST NEW METHOD

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — Collector of Customs A. Bayard Angle announced Tuesday the Bureau of Customs will test a new inspection method for overseas air passengers landing at Miami.

Passengers arriving from abroad have been required to prepare a written baggage declaration, Angle, but when the experiment is put into effect Sept. 12 passengers will be permitted to declare orally articles which they have purchased abroad.

Report First Polio Case In Eight Years

CLEARFIELD, Pa. (AP) — The first case of polio in Clearfield County in more than eight years was reported Wednesday.

Dr. William A. E. Leitzinger Jr. said Sherry K. Hudson, 3, of Clearfield was the first victim since March, 1954. He said she did not receive either the Salk or Sabin polio vaccine.

Leitzinger said the youngster developed paralysis of the left arm Tuesday night after being hospitalized last Friday with asthma.

ADJOURNMENT OF CONGRESS IS UNDECIDED

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST

WASHINGTON (AP) — Politics, which usually speeds Congress to adjournment early in an election year, may keep it in session beyond the end of September this year.

Too many members are vitally interested in primary elections and nominating conventions in the next few weeks to permit any action, at least in the House, on major controversial legislation.

The House has an unwritten but never-broken rule that it will not vote on days on which members are involved in primary elections.

TWO NEXT WEEK

There are two such days next week, and leaders plan to schedule no bills controversial enough to require roll call votes. The House may meet only next Tuesday and next Thursday, as many members have Labor Day speaking engagements.

The following week finds nine states having primaries, while in the succeeding week New York has a convention and Massachusetts a primary.

The tip-off to abandonment of plans for adjournment in September came Wednesday when Rep. Otto Passman, D-La., told the House the annual foreign aid appropriation bill will not be called up until Sept. 19.

FOREIGN AID

Foreign aid legislation is in more trouble than usual this year, and leaders fear that to vote on the measure before all members return from the campaign trail may get into more trouble.

House Republican leader Charles A. Halleck of Indiana said he is "hoping" for an Oct. 5 getaway. Sen. Hubert Humphrey of Minnesota, assistant Senate Democratic leader, is eyeing Sept. 22 as the adjournment day but conceded that legislators might be held up as long as Oct. 3.

17 Clergymen Are Freed From Jail

ALBANY, Ga. (AP) — Jail doors have swung open for 20 persons, including 17 clergymen, arrested for a racial protest demonstration. Most, if not all, of the 55 still behind bars planned to gain release today by posting $200 bonds.

The spotlight in this racial trouble spot shifts during the afternoon to U.S. district court, where a hearing was called on a suit seeking to desegregate parks, libraries and travel facilities in Albany.

More than 50 clergymen, mostly from Northern and Midwestern cities, were among 54 white persons and 21 negroes jailed Tuesday for refusing to leave the sidewalk in front of city hall where they sought to hold a prayer vigil.

SCHEDULE GOP MEETS

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Pennsylvania Council of Republican Women will hold eight political activities regional conferences this fall to promote their party's ticket, it was announced today.

The council set the following schedule: Pittsburgh, Sept. 10; Greensburg, Sept. 11; Ridgway, Sept. 12; State College, Sept. 13; Wilkes-Barre, Sept. 17; Easton, Sept. 18; Lancaster, Sept. 19, and Hershey, Sept. 20.

HOUSE PASSES PUBLIC WORKS BILL 221-192

By GEOFFREY GOULD

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House has passed President Kennedy's emergency public works program aimed at cutting unemployment and stimulating the economy.

Backers contend it would create as many as 300,000 new jobs, directly and indirectly.

Democratic leaders — shooting for a quick double-barreled victory — were hopeful today they could persuade the Senate to accept the measure as is.

Sen. Robert S. Kerr, D-Okla., indicated it might not take too much persuasion for the Senate to accept quickly the $900-million measure which passed the House on a voice vote.

Kerr, author and floor manager of the previously passed Senate emergency public works bill, told newsmen there's a possibility the Senate will agree to the House version without sending it to conference to iron out differences.

29 VOTE MARGIN

The key House roll call vote came on an earlier Republican move to kill the bill by sending it back to committee. The margin was a surprising 29 votes, 221-192. House leaders had been counting on a five-vote margin.

The Senate-passed measure would provide for a $1.5-billion program, $750 million for immediate use this year and $750 million in standby authority next year if unemployment stays at 5 per cent or more.

The House bill has no standby authority for next year, but it has $900 million for immediate use.

Rep. John A. Blatnik, D-Minn., shepherded the bill through the House. One of his aides said a key amendment to the House bill brought the measure closer to the language of the Senate bill. The amendment would allow projects in some critically depressed areas to have as much as 75 per cent federal financing.

The limit for federal financing of local projects had been 50 per cent, with localities required to provide matching funds.

Littlestown

50 PERSONS AT PARENTS' NIGHT

LITTLESTOWN — Approximately 50 parents and friends of the Explorer Scouts attended the Parents' Night meeting of Post 84 Wednesday evening at the Fish and Game clubhouse. Associate post advisor Charles Mummert, who was in charge of arrangements for the Post's two weeks trip to Canada, and Ronald Brown, showed moving pictures. Stanley Frock, post advisor, showed slide pictures of the trip.

Dr. Richard N. Greenholt, Black Walnut district official, discussed the ratio of adult leaders in Cub Scouts and Explorers, and read the Scout oath, the Scout law and the Explorer code, questioning "do you know of a better moral code that anyone can live by, which transcends all religious and racial barriers?" He appealed to parents to assist in every way they can with the Explorer program.

Those members of the post who earned a free weekend assisting with the directing of traffic and parking of cars during the Littlestown and Kingsdale carnivals, decided that they would spend the weekend at Elk Neck State Park, and will leave Community Center at 6 a.m. Saturday morning. Associate Post Advisor Lee Krout will accompany them. Richard Emerson, chairman of the post committee, will be in charge of transportation arrangements. Refreshments were served on Wednesday evening. There will be no meeting on Monday due to Labor Day but regular meetings will resume on September 10 at 7:30 p.m.

St. James' United Church of Christ will hold the annual chicken and ham supper Saturday at 3:30 p.m. in the parish hall.

A public party will be held by the Auxiliary of Eagles, at 8 p.m. Friday in the social room of the home.

Local boys who attended Camp Nawakwa near Arendtsville, last week were Kenneth Mayers, Alfred Stover, Ronald Beaver and James Rohrbaugh.

Visitors during the past week with Mr. and Mrs. George W. Yealy, Littlestown R. 1, included Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wilcox and son, Milton, and William Noel, Phoenix, Ariz.; Mr. and Mrs. George Bollinger and son, Gregory, Holly Hill, Fla.; Mr. and Mrs. George Yealy Sr.; Mrs. Gertrude Bollinger and daughter, Marian, Hanover.

KELSEYVILLE, Calif. (AP) — A raging forest fire, fed by 90-degree plus heat, has forced the evacuation of an estimated 1,000 vacationers in a popular mountain resort area about 80 miles north of San Francisco.

The State Division of Forestry said Tuesday that the blaze in the Cobb Mountain area in scenic Lake County has blackened 9,000 acres since it started near here Sunday.

Emmitsburg

MRS. RALPH LONG

Phone H. 7-2231

EMMITSBURG — Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rodgers and family spent Sunday in Baltimore. They were accompanied home by Mrs. Thornton Rodgers who had spent the week with Mr. and Mrs. Donald Rodgers and Mr. and Mrs. John Owens.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Baker visited with Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Peters and family in Baltimore on Sunday.

Mrs. Paul Keepers and Mrs. Grant Long observed their birthday anniversaries on Wednesday.

The annual Sanders reunion was held Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sanders, near Waynesboro. Following a basket lunch a meeting was held and games were played. Prize winners were: Joseph Sanders, Jerry Orndorff, Regina Kelly, Nancy Bouey, Lella Orndorff, Kathleen Sanders, Betty Sanders, Bernadette Sanders, Gloria Orndorff, Andrew Bakner, Robert Bakner, Steven Kelly and Shirley Porter.

Officers for next year are: President, Mrs. Mildred Dutrow; vice president Mrs. John Orndorff; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. James Kelly. The group decided to hold the reunion at Rocky Ridge park next year, on the same Sunday. A barbecue supper was enjoyed by all in the evening.

PAUL VATHIS IS HONORED

By HARRY W. BALL

JIM THORPE, Pa. (AP) — The old home town of Pulitzer-Prize winner Paul Vathis poured out its heart Wednesday night at an unusual testimonial dinner honoring the 36-year-old Associated Press photographer from Harrisburg.

The setting was on 1,000-foot high Flagstaff Mountain on whose precipitous slopes Vathis picked huckleberries and killed rattlesnakes as a boy.

The dinner and speech-making, including an address by Pennsylvania Gov. David L. Lawrence, the first chief executive to visit this Carbon County community during his term of office, took place in a spacious dining room which is the major facility of Flagstaff Park.

275 AT DINNER

From a veranda overlook, sightseers command a view of the mountainous area for 30 miles.

Publisher Joseph Boyle of the Jim Thorpe Times-News sparked the dinner honoring Vathis for his achievement in winning the 1962 Pulitzer award for excellence in news photography.

Old friends from schooldays at Jim Thorpe High School mingled with the state officials and other distinguished citizens who constituted the crowd of 275 persons attending the home style dinner of baked ham, fried chicken and meat balls.

In the main address of the evening, Gov. Lawrence described Vathis as "one of the best practitioners of the fine profession of news photography," and added that "he is a distinct credit to his profession."

A giant-size picture of Vathis' prize photograph which provided a dramatic background for the stage setting was presented to Jim Thorpe High School.

LONDON (AP) — Dr. Robert A. Soblen was described by his lawyer in the Court of Appeal today as a political refugee meriting sanctuary from the arm of American law.

The lawyer argued that the offenses for which Soblen was convicted in America—passing wartime secrets to the Russians—"touched upon the sovereignty of the United States."

Soblen, 61, is appealing against a High Court decision last week which approved a British deportation order.

SENATE BEATS KENNEDY TAX ON DIVIDENDS

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate has turned down President Kennedy's proposal for a withholding system to wipe out tax evasion on dividend and interest income.

The defeat had been conceded in advance by administration leaders struggling to put the watered-down tax revision bill through the Senate.

But the size of the vote Wednesday against withholding—66-20—was a surprise even to the little group of Democrats who tried to keep it in the bill. Only 19 Democrats and one Republican, John Sherman Cooper of Kentucky, supported the President; 34 Democrats and 32 Republicans opposed the provision.

SALVAGE CHANGE

There's a chance the proposal will be salvaged in conference because the House included it in passing the measure in March. But the strongest advocates of the plan said their hope is slim.

The Treasury estimated the dividend and interest withholding plan would bring in about $900 million a year in taxes now evaded by failure to report about $5 billion of such income.

This was to be the biggest item in paying for the major feature of the bill—an investment credit to spur U.S. business to buy new machinery and equipment.

Without withholding, the bill is estimated to mean a substantial annual deficit to the Treasury.

RAIL SERVICE HALTS ON CNW DUE TO STRIKE

CHICAGO (AP) — Operations on the Chicago & North Western Railway, one of the nation's largest railroads, were halted today by a strike despite personal efforts by President Kennedy to avert the walkout.

Freight and passenger service along the nearly 11,000-mile line in nine Midwestern states was struck at 7 a.m. by 1,000 members of the AFL-CIO Order of Railroad Telegraphers.

It was the fourth strike called by the union since the dispute with the North Western started more than four years ago but the first to go into effect.

ALL TRAINS HALTED

At the strike deadline, a spokesman for the railroad said all trains had halted. Pickets appeared at the North Western station, the carrier's general headquarters.

Union officials had said some 15,000 other employees of the line would not cross the telegraphers' picket lines.

The strike started officially five hours after union and railroad officials met in lengthy, last-minute negotiations in an attempt to settle the long dispute.

GOLDBERG SENT

Secretary of Labor Arthur J. Goldberg was sent to the negotiations by President Kennedy in an attempt to reach an agreement. The government had exhausted all legal means of preventing the strike.

The chief stumbling block in the dispute is the union's demand that no telegraphers or station agents jobs that existed Dec. 3, 1957, be discontinued except by agreement between the union and the carrier. The North Western says this would give the union "an absolute veto over technological improvements and over modernization and increases in efficiency."

Orrtanna

MRS. LUTHER WETZEL

ORRTANNA — 12 members of the WSWs Society of the Mt. Carmel EUB Church and their pastor, Rev. A. K. Gotwalt, were guests of the WSWs of the Edenville EUB Church, Franklin Co., at their August meeting recently.

Mrs. Ira K. Nangle, a former member of the Mt. Carmel Church, was leader for the meeting.

The nominating committee of the Mt. Carmel EUB Church met on Thursday evening to select officers for both the Sunday School and church for 1962-1963.

Mrs. Ruth Cole visited recently with Mr. and Mrs. Dale Herring and family and with her brother and sister, John G. Herring and Mrs. Esther Baker.

MOSCOW (AP) — Acting Secretary-General U. Thant said today Soviet Premier Khrushchev told him he has no plans to attend the U.N. General Assembly opening next month. But Thant said that Khrushchev did not rule out a visit later in the assembly session.

BOURNE, England (AP) — The City Council apologized today for seven beautiful girls who stripped down to bathing suits to form an honor guard at a church wedding.

The girls are swimmers in an aquashow with the bride, Eileen Hart, 22.

At Eileen's wedding in a local Anglican church, the seven sat demurely and fully clad in their pew through the half-hour service.

After the service, the dresses came off in the churchyard outside, revealing swimsuits embellished by filmy trains of white lace.

The council apologized because it sponsors the show.

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — The Iraq Petroleum Company's pipeline through Kurdish rebel territory has been cut and the oil flow halted, a company spokesman reported today.

THE HAGUE, Netherlands (AP) — The Dutch government will try to get the United States to admit some 10,000 Dutch immigrants from West New Guinea, a spokesman of the Dutch Emigration Council said today.

HONG KONG (AP) — The Chinese Communists tightened security restrictions along the China-Hong Kong border today following Wednesday's explosion of a bomb in a border customs station.

TEHRAN, Iran (AP) — Mrs. Lyndon Johnson carried her husband's "Meet-the-people" program to the younger folks Monday.

While the Vice President tackled problems of U.S.-Iranian relations, Mrs. Johnson visited an orphanage that cares for youngsters from a few hours old up to 2 years — 5,000 of them.

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP) — The heaviest snowfall in memory covered Johannesburg Tuesday. Frolicking citizens — many seeing snow for the first time — started wild snowball fights that sometimes led to swinging fists and smashed windows.

The snow was 12 inches deep in places.

SOCTRANG, South Viet Nam (AP) — A Vietnamese air force fighter plane crashed during a strafing run on a Communist Viet Cong village Tuesday with its rockets and guns still blazing.

The Vietnamese pilot and American copilot were presumed killed. The name of the American, a captain, was withheld until next of kin were notified.

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Charges of obstructing justice have been dropped against Edward J. Wuensche, of Holland, Pa., accused in a New York bond theft plot, and one of his attorneys, James F. McCort, U.S. Commissioner Edward W. Furia told the action after U.S. Atty. Edmund DePaul said the government did not wish to prosecute the men "although there was a technical offense committed by them."

Wuensche had been free on $25,000 bail.

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Alexander R. Boyd, president of Boyd Theaters, died Wednesday in Jefferson Hospital. He was 86. Boyd operated motion picture theaters in Philadelphia, Allentown, Chester, Bethlehem, Easton and Lancaster.

QUARRYVILLE, Pa. (AP) — A 19-year-old Lancaster County youth drowned in a farm pond Wednesday when the tractor he was driving tipped over at the edge of the pond and pinned him under the surface. Dead was Theodore W. Wimer of Quarryville R. 3. His brother, Jimmy, 6, jumped from the tractor before it toppled into about four feet of water.

WILL ARREST AG OFFICIALS IN RICE CASE

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — The U.S. marshal's office plans to arrest today two of three men indicted by a federal grand jury investigating widespread misuse of rice acreage allotments.

Two former Department of Agriculture officials and a chemical company employee were indicted Wednesday.

The marshal's office said last night it planned to arrest David C. Stephens of Angleton, Tex., fired in June as the Brazoria County manager for the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service, and Laurence G. Newman of Lake Jackson, Tex.

THORNHILL, Ill. (AP) — Tacitus C. Thornhill of Waller, Tex., fired from a job similar to Stephens' in Waller County, is a patient in a Brenham (Tex.) hospital.

Neither hospital officials nor Thornhill's doctor would say why he is hospitalized. He was admitted Aug. 22.

All the charges are based on fraudulent rice acreage dealings, said U.S. Atty. Woodrow Seals.

CHARGED ON SIX COUNTS

Stephens, 46, was charged in six counts of offering $11,000 in bribes to other employees of the service, and 14 counts of receiving $20,963 in bribes.

Four other counts against Stephens include conspiracy to defraud the government and making a false statement in a government report.

Thornhill, 66, faces nine counts of accepting bribes totaling $29,353 and one count of conspiracy to defraud the government.

Newman, 35, the chemical company employee, was accused of posing as a farmer willing to sell his rice allotments. He was indicted on one count of conspiring to defraud the government.

PILOTS CAUSE CANCELLATION

UTICA, N.Y. (AP) — Mohawk Airlines blames a shortage of pilots, who have not flown the maximum number of hours permitted in a month, for a curtailment of its flights this week.

The curtailments began Monday, and a spokesman said Wednesday that about 50 per cent of today's flights would be cancelled.

The airline normally has 100 flights a day. About 30 were cancelled Wednesday.

The airline explained that pilots, under the law and their union's contract with the airline, were limited to a maximum of 85 hours of flight time per month.

Some of the airlines' 100 pilots have flown their limit, and thus the cancellations were necessary, the spokesman said.

The cancellations were spread throughout the Mohawk system, which covers 10 states.

TV BIOGS ARE MANUFACTURED FOR APPEAL

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — The curtain will soon rise on a new television season. New programs will impress (or depress) the viewers. New stars will twinkle on the home screens.

As part of the television manufacturing process, there is the advance build-up for a legion of unknowns, those new and usually handsome faces tapped for television stardom months and months before the public has a chance to look and react.

The star-making process includes mimeographed documents somewhat misleadingly called "biographies."

WHOLESALE BASIS

These are turned out on a wholesale basis by anonymous specialists skilled in producing such titillating introductions as "Mike Greene, who stands 6 feet, 5 inches and weighs 205 pounds, says, 'I can't act small,'" or "With 100 hard-earned dollars and a feeling he was bound to succeed, a scrawny 19-year-old arrived in New York a few years ago only to discover the big city really did not care."

Both are quoted from the official biographies of Greene, soon to be introduced as a new lead in old "Cheyenne" and Andrew Prine, second lead in the new "Wide Country."

PROPER BIOGRAPHY

A proper television biography can be identified more by omission than information. For instance, if a male star was born earlier than 1930, his birthdate consists merely of a day and a month—never, never a year.

No matter how recently a woman star was born, her birth year is never mentioned.

The official biography also is more likely to stress the unusual than the routine. For instance, a costar in "Naked City" is introduced as follows: "Harry Bellaver was a teamster at 10, chewed tobacco at 10, was a coal miner at 16 and an actor at 23."

DEAD END KID

A youngster born of honest, hard-working parents in, say, Brooklyn is likely to emerge in the biography as a sort of Dead End kid who rose the hard way over a dreadful environment. A starlet with a year of high-school French often comes out "reading and speaking fluently seven languages including modern Greek."

There is an unwritten law that each of these documents must conclude with a listing of the subject's hobbies, and here the writ-

Khrushchev Meets U. Thant At Yalta

MOSCOW (AP) — Premier Khrushchev interrupted his holiday-making at Yalta Tuesday and received U. Thant, acting secretary-general of the United Nations.

The official news agency Tass said the two talked in "a friendly and easy atmosphere." Tass gave no indication what the topics were.

Before leaving for Yalta, Thant told newsmen in Moscow he planned to discuss world problems with Khrushchev.

Khrushchev's family is at Yalta and Tass said that after the talk, Khrushchev invited Thant to dine with him and the family.

Thant met with Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko Monday and reported later they had discussed "some of the major problems facing the United Nations today." Thant termed the talks fruitful and friendly. He said the Berlin crisis was not brought up.

RAIL UNIONS BLAST ROADS ON WORK RULE

CHICAGO (AP)—Five brotherhoods, representing 200,000 operating trainmen, say the nation's railroads are attempting to force them into a nationwide strike they want to avoid.

The union's statement was made Monday in the U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals in answer to an appeal by the carriers from a temporary court order preventing implementation of work rules which would eliminate jobs of 40,000 locomotive firemen.

The railroads were enjoined on Aug. 8 by U. S. District Court Judge Joseph Sam Perry. The railroads appealed and Monday's union brief was a reply to the appeal.

The brotherhoods told the court they require the 40 days allowed for filing their appeal.

The unions said implementation of the new work rules would have two results—a strike and the subsequent appointment of a presidential emergency board. The unions said the effectiveness of such a board would be a matter of conjecture.

ers really let themselves go.

Sometimes it seems to this ardent biography-reader that, if the biography-writers were allowed to write the television shows, we wouldn't be complaining about a lack of creativity and imagination.

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES

FETE GOLDWYN AT BANQUET ON 80TH BIRTHDAY

By BOB THOMAS

AP Movie-Television Writer
HOLLYWOOD (AP) — When a community gathers to honor a leading citizen on his 80th year, the pattern is pretty much the same everywhere.

Well, perhaps it's a little bit different in Hollywood, as judged by this week's banquet for Samuel Goldwyn. The difference may be that Hollywood declines to take such things seriously.

Maybe that's all right. Maybe that's better than lengthy oratory. But sometimes in the headlong dash for brevity and wit the essence of the occasion is overlooked.

IMPOSING EVENING

This is but a minor comment on what was otherwise an imposing evening. It started in a reception room, where the notables were warming up for the occasion like ballplayers getting ready for a World Series.

David Selznick asked solicitously of Mrs. Goldwyn how her husband was bearing up under the celebration. "He's nervous as a cat, but otherwise he's fine," she said.

George Jessel, toastmaster as always, said he was at the North Pole entertaining troops the day before, returned to find he needed jokes for 51 introductions. Harpo Marx said the occasion was so auspicious he might break his silence (he did).

OTHER CELEBRITIES

Walter Brennan, Randolph Scott and Fred Astaire were locked in one conversation. Gene Kelly, Danny Kaye and Jimmy Stewart in another. Another notable trio: James Durante, Ann-Margret and Eddie Fisher. Jack Benny was chatting with Richard Nixon. Irene Dunne and Jayne Mansfield also were present, though not together.

Goldwyn, looking tanned and fit, was in a high-level conversation with Sen. Jacob K. Javits of New York.

The scrolls and the gags began at 9 o'clock and continued for two hours. Generally, the politicians stuck to the scrolls and the comedians to the gags.

BERLE SETS TONE

Durante, Frank Sinatra and Eddie Fisher sang. Among the comedians, Jack Benny was the most rambling. Bob Hope was strangely subdued. Berle set the tone for the gags, declaring that Goldwyn had a record "of taking stars and making unknowns of them."

Goldwyn took it all with a wide grin. At the end he rose for a

Soviet Ships Grain For Havana Sugar

LONDON (AP)—The Soviet motorship Us'yuzhna left Odessa for Havana Tuesday carrying 5,000 tons of grain and a 100-ton crane, the Soviet news agency Tass reported.

Tass said it was part of a big buildup in shipments to Cuba, which are expected to double the 1961 figure.

About 10 Soviet ships are already heading for Cuba with cargoes including automobiles, agricultural equipment, canned goods and timber, Tass said.

Foreign ships are being called in to help with the increased Soviet-Cuba traffic. Among ships chartered, Tass said, are the West German Westfalen, the Norwegian Tove Lillian, the Greek Paron and the Italian Alcone.

The ships will return to the Soviet Union with Cuban raw sugar, Tass said.

brief speech of thanks: "I had a great deal to say, but I just can't say it."

So the evening was over with a lot of things unsaid. No one really put a finger on the greatness of the man.

Harvard football coach Richard C. Diehl of Pittsburgh, Pa., is the son of the late Dick Diehl who played football at Ohio State in 1925-26.

FARMER GROUP TO FIGHT FOR HIGHER PRICE

By RON SPEER

DES MOINES, Iowa (AP)—The National Farmers Organization starts Saturday what it calls a "battle for the survival of the family farm."

Members of the Midwest farm group are pledged to sell no hogs, cattle, sheep or grain from mid-night Friday until processors agree to long-range contracts, with the NFO calling for higher prices of those products.

Buoyed by a massive turnout of an estimated 20,000 members who shouted approval of the holding action here Tuesday, NFO president Oren Lee Staley declared: "We mean to win."

WILL WIN BATTLE

"Whatever length of time it takes to win this battle, we will do it," the 39-year-old Rea, Mo., farmer said.

"American farmers are the most underpaid group in America. They have retreated as far as they can. We do not intend to retreat any farther."

Staley warned members to brace for a long fight. He said the supply of meat in storage and sale of livestock by nonmembers will keep the market at near-normal levels for about two weeks.

CAN ATTAIN GOALS

The NFO president said his group has sufficient strength to attain its goals in the holding action. Three previous holding actions—in which hogs were kept off the market—failed to produce higher prices.

Staley has declined to reveal the number of farmers in the NFO, which claims membership in 13 states west of the Pennsylvania border to the Rocky Mountains, and south from Canada to Kentucky and Oklahoma.

He said, however, that he believes control of 25 to 30 per cent of the country's total agricultural production is needed to affect the market.

HOLDING ACTION

The holding action calls for livestock and grain to be held until the following minimum prices are secured, compared to what the NFO said are current prices:

Butcher hogs 190-210 pounds, $22.75 a hundredweight (now about $18.50).

Choice grade cattle weighing 800-1,000 pounds, $32.45 (now about $28.00).

Choice woolled lambs, $29.45 (now about $22.00).

Corn, $1.49 a bushel (now about $1.10).

Soybeans, $2.56 a bushel (now about $2.30).

Speculators Push Silver Prices Up Again As Users Fear Shortage, Price Hike

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP)—Speculators have moved in on the silver market again with many industrial users fearing shortages or soaring prices during their big season just ahead.

But all hands are keeping a watchful eye on Mexico which has replaced the U.S. Treasury as a potential arbiter of world silver prices.

Speculators sent the price up earlier this month. Then Mexico, world's largest silver producer, offered to sell if the price reached a fraction higher than the current market one and thus halt the rise.

CLIMBING AGAIN

Now it is climbing again. The price went above $1.10 an ounce in London Tuesday. European speculators were credited with sparking some of the demand. The rest appeared to be coming from industrial users preparing for fall production schedules.

Prices have risen in the United States, too as American manufacturers of silver items for the Christmas trade go into full swing. Also watching the price trend closely are the burgeoning photographic and electronic industries.

It is their growing demand for silver, added to the traditional silverware and coinage uses, that sent demand for the metal far above current world production.

GAP FIGURES

The gap between production and consumption in the non-Communist world last year came to 140 million ounces. Production runs at better than 230 million ounces a year.

Silver held off the market by speculators is now estimated as high as 20 million ounces.

The U.S. Treasury for several years controlled the price of silver by standing ready to sell it at around 91½ cents an ounce. But the rising industrial demand used up the Treasury's reserves stocks, and last November it stopped selling. Since then the price on the open market has risen by fits and starts.

MEXICO ACTS

Mexico, with a large supply on hand and more coming steadily from its mines, has acted occasionally to steady the price.

The U.S. Treasury's remaining stocks are used to back $1 and $2 bills. It also mints silver coins, for which there is a growing demand in this era of vending machines and turnstiles.

The current silver price is the highest in 42 years. The big demand at that time came from governments coining silver during and after World War I. In 1920 the record silver price of $1.30 an ounce was reached.

U. S. MINES CLOSED

In the United States many of the fabulous silver mines—in Arizona, Colorado and New Mexico—have long since closed. Most U.S. production of silver now is a sideline to the mining of lead and zinc and copper. Price weakness in lead and zinc in recent months has idled many of these mines and silver production has dropped along with it.

Last year the United States imported 40 million ounces of silver to meet the demand. Much silver goes into photographic film—and the camera bedecked tourists tell you how much more film is being used.

But the missile and space age is bringing still new demand for silver, with a growing market in many electrical products.

With the U.S. Treasury out of the market this year as a supplier, U.S. manufacturers have had to turn more and more to foreign sources.

Dwindling supplies and speculators have combined to send the price up.

Reading Acquires L And S Railroad

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Reading Company has acquired the Lehigh and Susquehanna Railroad, a 105-mile line between Phillipsburg, N.J., and Wilkes-Barre, Pa., it was announced here Wednesday.

E. P. Gangwere, president of the Reading Company, and H. Louis Thompson, president of Lehigh and Susquehanna, said agreement has been reached whereby the Reading acquires the Lehigh and Susquehanna subject

STATE CHAMBER FAVORS MERGER

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Pennsylvania State Chamber of Commerce views the proposed merger of the Pennsylvania Railroad and the New York Central as "an imaginative exercise in management to improve service."

The chamber's support of the proposal was registered in a statement prepared for presentation before an Interstate Commerce Commission hearing in Washington.

The trade organization's favorable stand on the proposal was summarized by Penrose Hertzler, vice president and a director of the state chamber, and chairman of its Transportation Committee.

The statement said the chamber looked upon the proposed union as "one of a series of steps which should be taken by the roads, with the active assistance of government, to bring the railroad business back into step with our expanding economy."

Reading will pay $500,000 over a period of five years in annual installments. The transaction is subject to approval of the Interstate Commerce Commission and stockholders of the two firms.

It is expected special meetings of stockholders will be called by both companies, but no dates have yet been set for these meetings.

U.S. STEEL TO BUILD OXYGEN ALLOY PLANTS

BY JOE BRADIS

PITTSBURGH (AP)—U. S. Steel Corp., the country's largest steel producer, disclosed Wednesday plans to install two oxygen steel-making furnaces at its nearby Duquesne Works for the production of high-quality steels.

The facility will round out a modernization program at the Duquesne Works which will make that plant the leading producer of quality alloy and silicon steels and high grade carbon steel bars, U. S. Steel said.

The announcement was made by President Leslie B. Worthington at a breakfast news conference.

ON MONONGAHELA

The new plant will be installed on the banks of the Monongahela River. It will house two oxygen steel-making furnaces, each with a 150-ton capacity. They will be flanked by charging and teeming ment, to bring the railroad business back into step with our expanding economy."

License Charter Group Under Fire

READING, Pa. (AP)—A deputy attorney general says he will file a petition in Dauphin County Court asking the revocation of the nonprofit charter of a group which allegedly promised to help drivers arrested for speeding keep their licenses for a fee.

Deputy Atty. Gen. Gerald W. Ullman said at his home here Tuesday night he will take action.

Worthington said the new plant will be in operation late in 1964 and will mark the complete modernization of the Duquesne Works and its emergence as U. S. Steel's center of production for quality steels for the eastern market.

Construction of the multi-million dollar plant is to begin immediately. The specific cost was not disclosed.

The oxygen steel-making process makes a "heat" of steel about eight times faster than the conventional open hearth method. The new furnaces will produce a "heat" of steel in less than one hour, compared with an average of about eight hours for an open hearth.

An integral part of the new facility will be a dust recovery system which will eliminate the possibility of air pollution from the operation, Worthington said.

POLL TAX VOTE POSES FEWER PA. PROBLEMS

HARRISBURG (AP)—Less stringent voting requirements will be involved in Pennsylvania's dealings with a U. S. constitutional question like the poll tax than if it concerned the state constitution.

Congress completed legislative action Monday on a U. S. constitutional amendment to abolish the poll tax in the five states which still maintain it as a condition of voting. The law affects only elections for national office such as President and Congress.

probably next week against the Pennsylvania Operator's Association.

He said state police have been investigating for three months following complaints by drivers.

Ullman said William H. Black, president of the operators association, accepted money from truck drivers caught speeding and promised to keep their licenses from being suspended. But no license suspensions were ever stopped, said Ullman, and no state employees were involved.

Under the procedure, the proposed amendment will now be referred to the legislatures of the 50 states for action.

NEW STATE HOUSE

All of the 210 members of Pennsylvania's House of Representatives and 26 of the 50 members of the state Senate will be chosen in the fall elections.

The legislature will be reorganized with new leaders at party caucuses in December and the biennial session meets next Jan. 1. For budget-making purposes, only the general Assembly also is convened in even-numbered years.

There is nothing mandatory in federal or state law that would require the 1963 legislature to act on the amendment. It would, however, be received as a matter of courtesy from Washington and referred to the proper committee.

REQUIRES MAJORITY

The states—a three-fourths majority is required for adoption—have seven years in which to act on it.

A majority vote by a quorum of members present in each of the two houses of the Pennsylvania Assembly would be sufficient for adoption of the amendment.

In the case of a state constitutional amendment, the favorable vote of a majority of the "elected" members of both houses is required.

It must be passed by two separate legislative bodies—that is,

Ryan Is Named To Auditor's Office

HARRISBURG (AP)—James V. Ryan, U.S. marshal for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania and former Democratic chairman of Schuylkill County, will take over Sept. 4 as a new administrative officer in the state auditor general's office.

Ryan was named to the $10,432-a-year post Tuesday. He is expected to resign from the $12,000-a-year federal post sometime before the Sept. 4 date.

Ryan, a resident of Cass Twp., is also reported under pressure from within the Democratic party to return to county politics to bolster the Democratic chances in the Nov. 6 election.

Until now, the Democratic party has failed to overcome the Republican majority in Schuylkill County. The GOP carried the county by 2,300 votes in last November's Supreme Court race.

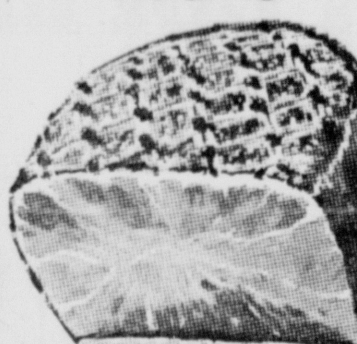

a state election intervening between the votes—before the state constitutional amendment is adopted. It then is submitted to the people for a vote.

For adoption of the poll tax amendment, only favorable action by the legislatures is required and it does not go before the people at an election.

CONGRESS OK'S AMENDMENT ON POLL TAX

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST

WASHINGTON (AP)—Capping a 23-year battle, Congress has approved a proposed constitutional amendment which would ban poll taxes in federal elections.

Now it's up to the states, which have seven years to make up their minds.

With 40 votes to spare, the House completed action Monday on a resolution submitting to the state legislatures the proposition of making it constitutionally illegal to require payment of a poll tax to vote in elections for federal officials.

SOME DISSENTERS

The vote was 295 to 86. A two-thirds majority was needed for approval. The winners included 163 Democrats and 132 Republicans. On the losing side were 71 Democrats and 15 Republicans.

Most of the dissenting Democrats were from the five states still having poll taxes: Arkansas, Alabama, Mississippi, Texas and Virginia.

The next move is up to the General Services Administration. That agency must certify the congressional action—approved last March by the Senate—to the governors of the 50 states. If three-fourths of the state legislatures—25 of them—ratify the proposed amendment within seven years it will become the law of the land.

The abolition proposal does not affect elections for state and local officials. It applies only to presidential and vice presidential elections and to voters for senators and United States representatives.

There was no certainty that approval by the 38 legislatures would be forthcoming, despite the fact that only five states now have poll tax laws. Some Southern states which have repealed their own poll tax laws may look upon the proposal as an attempt by the federal government to prescribe qualifications for voters.

KENNEDY HAS HIS SATELLITE BILL ON DESK

By GEOFFREY GOULD

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy has on his desk today the communications satellite bill he wanted.

It sets up a private, profit-making corporation to run the U.S. portion of an eventual global network on space relay stations.

The House approved a Senate version of the bill 372 to 10 Monday, foreclosing any chance to another Senate filibuster.

A small group of House liberals argued again that the bill represents a giveaway of millions of taxpayers' dollars spent on space research that makes the revolutionary communications system possible.

MONTHS OF DEBATE

Rep. Oren Harris, D-Ark., chairman of the House Commerce Committee, said, "Our nation needs it. It needs it now, and without further delay."

Rep. W. R. Poage, D-Tex., who voted against the bill, said the corporation's board of directors will be dominated by the American Telephone & Telegraph Co.

The private enterprise approach to the problem of how to run a global communications network was worked out in the executive branch after months of behind the scenes debate. It has the strong backing of the President.

OFFER TO PUBLIC

The satellite corporation would have 15 directors: Six named by the communications companies, six elected by public stockholders and three appointed by the President.

The communications companies could buy up to 50 per cent of the stock. The other half would be offered to the public at $100 a share.

The bill as it passed the House had a provision providing for a reduced number of directors to be named by the communications companies if they did not subscribe to their full share of the stock. This was knocked out by the Senate.

SCHOOL HEAD ASKS BOYCOTT BY CATHOLICS

BURAS, La. (AP)—The superintendent of public schools in Plaquemine Parish has urged Roman Catholic parents to take their children out of parochial schools rather than accept desegregation.

"I am a Catholic, but when my church starts fighting me, I am going to fight back," said the school official, Sam A. Moncla.

Moncla told a group of about 600 Catholic parents Monday night that the public schools have facilities to educate Catholic children removed from parochial schools.

HASTILY CALLED MEETING

The parents attended a hastily called meeting to discuss an announcement that a parochial school in Buras would be desegregated next month. The parish is in the archdiocese of New Orleans which was directed last spring by Archbishop Joseph Francis Rummel to accept all pupils regardless of race in its parochial schools.

East Germans Resigned To Red Party Membership As Means To Get Ahead

EDITOR'S NOTE — Although Western correspondents regularly visit East Berlin, the rest of Communist East Germany usually is closed to them except for such East-West events as the annual Leipzig Trade Fair or an all-European sports competition. AP correspondent Loyal Gould has been covering the European swimming championships in Saxony's largest city and sends this report of life behind the Iron Curtain.

By LOYAL GOULD

LEIPZIG, East Germany (AP) — Hopes rise and fall along the Berlin Wall with the slightest change in the East-West political climate. But inside East Germany, there is a spirit of resignation.

Walter Ulbricht, Germany's top Red, has succeeded in wiping out almost all hope for a change for the better.

"After 17 years of Communist rule," a Leipzig streetcar conductor said, "we are coming to accept our fate."

He expressed the opinion of dozens of people this reporter talked to during 10 days in this former cultural and commercial center.

DRAB UNIFORMITY

Once known as a little Paris because of its sparkling intellectual and social life, Leipzig now has the drab uniformity and widespread shabbiness characteristic of East Germany's colorless cities.

"Since it looks to many of us as if it's going to stay this way, we're knuckling under and trying to make the best of a bad situation," said a student from East Berlin's Humboldt University.

"The only way to get ahead here is to at least pretend you're a good Communist," he explained.

PARTY HELPS

Joining the party assured him a university education, a slightly better diet and preference for a job when he graduates next year.

"There are about 1.6 million of us in the party," he continued.

ALABAMA HAS REVISED LIST OF NOMINEES

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — Democrats in Alabama have revised their list of nominees for the state legislature in line with federal court orders to give urban areas more representation.

Voters in 21 of the state's 67 counties cast ballots Tuesday in a special primary called after the court's unprecedented action last month in reshuffling the lawmaking body by judicial decree.

Jefferson County, the state's most populous, voted for 10 additional House nominees to go with the seven chosen in the state's regular primary in May. Four of the new seats were filled; the other six nominees will be selected in a runoff Sept. 11.

EQUIVALENT TO ELECTION — Democratic nomination is equivalent to election in Alabama.

A new political figure emerged from the balloting. A Mobile businesswoman, Clara Stone Fields, apparently defeated two male opponents for one of the five additional seats allotted to Mobile County by the court order.

Only two women have served in the Alabama Legislature.

The federal court took seats away from some smaller counties, gave them to the more populous political subdivisions of the state, and made it necessary to choose new nominees.

"and about 1 per cent are true believers."

"What's the use of showing opposition? You'll only suffer for it. Why try to escape? You'll probably be killed."

SHOP CLERK

A shop clerk in her late teens voiced similar opinions.

"There's no use even pretending it ever will be any different," she said, "because the people running things here are backed up by Russian power."

The girl, who would be pretty if she had the things with which Western women enhance their looks, is a member of the Communist Free German Youth organization.

Her fiancé is a 20-year-old machinist in a Leipzig factory. The party has promised them a 2½-room apartment in an apartment house to be completed in three months.

LIP SERVICE

"I have to give lip service to party doctrine," said the machinist, "but why not when it's to my advantage?"

He said Communist and non-Communist workers in his factory meet almost daily to discuss the editorials in the party's main newspaper Neues Deutschland.

"These sessions are boring and time consuming and we dislike them," he continued, "but if you don't show you've read and understood the editorials, you're sunk."

SMALL TOWNS LESS BIASED

NEW YORK (AP) — A Cornell University study says small-town American Jews run into much less anti-Semitism than Jews living in big cities.

The study, released Monday, says Jews in small towns become an integral part of the social life of their communities through daily formal and informal contact with their Christian neighbors.

"In this way," said Prof. Peter I. Rose, "each gets to know the other, and the rural Jew finds himself better accepted among his neighbors than does the city Jew."

Jews were interviewed in New York communities of less than 10,000 population, and more than half named Christians as their closest friends. Some 81 per cent said they found no discrimination of any kind, and 83 per cent belonged to non-Jewish organizations.

Rose conducted the study under the sponsorship of the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith, national Jewish service and fraternal organization.

OMAHA, Neb. (AP) — A cold front dropped the temperature at Chadron, Neb., from 102 Monday afternoon to 37 degrees Tuesday morning—a 65-degree fall.

At Valentine the drop was from 104 to 44, at Alliance from 99 to 34 and at other points in western and northern Nebraska almost as much.

NEW YORK (AP) — About 85 Cuban exiles demonstrated in Times Square Tuesday night to urge American aid for their campaign to topple the regime of Prime Minister Fidel Castro.

The demonstrators, carrying signs that read, "We need the guns and support, we will do rest," and "18,000 Russian soldiers in Cuba," chanted "America yes, Castro no."

TENNESSEE IS TAKING STEPS TO INTEGRATE

By JOE SWEAT

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP) — Chattanooga cast aside color barriers in its school system Wednesday, quietly admitting seven Negroes for registration at two previously white schools.

They were the first of 39 Negroes scheduled for admission to six white schools.

In addition, the city is the first in the South to try to place white youngsters in one-time Negro schools. Some 32 white youngsters were scheduled for enrollment at four schools which served only Negroes last year.

MOVED ELSEWHERE

City School Supt. Bennie Carmichael said previously, however, that he understood most of the white families involved had moved to other districts without notifying the board.

The integration process will be completed Thursday when surrounding Hamilton County conducts its registration, throwing open the same three lower grades to pupils regardless of race.

Hamilton County's action was voluntary; the city's came under federal court order.

FORMAL CLASSES

Formal classes begin Sept. 5 in both the city and county systems. The integration steps come after almost a year of planning, special indoctrination of teachers and police officers and, lately, numerous appeals for law and order from community leaders.

Chattanooga, with its metropolitan area extending into north Georgia, is the last of Tennessee's four major cities to begin desegregation.

The city proposes to complete integration of all its schools by 1968; the county plans to add a grade a year until all 12 grades are integrated by 1971.

The city's total enrollment in Police identified the girls as Carolyn Stawicki, 26, Virginia, 21, and Betty, 16. Carolyn was driving.

The truck driver, Charles A. Albert, 22, of Harrisville R. 2, was released after treatment at Clarion Hospital.

Police said the girls and their parents had been visiting relatives in Emporium. The sisters were heading for St. Louis and the parents were returning to Detroit in another car.

How To Use Water To END YOUR CONSTIPATION WORRIES

Here's how to get to the root of your constipation problem. Bring enough moisture to your lower colon every day. When food wastes are normally moistened, they will "move" as they should.

So do this. Take SERUTAN every day with plenty of water. SERUTAN is a pure vegetable gel that carries and holds water in your lower digestive tract to promote more normal regularity.

SERUTAN provides the proper moisture, bulk and peristaltic action to help keep you regular. This is utterly different from harsh chemical laxatives which may dry you out.

Get SERUTAN. Take as directed and enjoy daily regularity or money back from the maker.

Once Foes, France And Germany Shake Hands

By William L. Ryan

Associated Press News Analyst

Two indestructible old political warriors have thrown away the politicians' rule book in an attempt to produce one of the most significant developments of the century in western Europe.

Their handshake September 4 will represent a long step in the reconciliation of two traditional enemies who have been at each other's throats thrice in less than 100 years.

Back in 1870, in the Franco-Prussian War, one of the first of the modern people-against-people conflicts, the Germans under the Iron Chancellor Otto von Bismarck utterly defeated the French Emperor Napoleon III.

The war actually gave birth to modern Germany by uniting the loose federation of German states under the banner of King Wilhelm of Prussia, who became the Emperor Wilhelm I of Germany.

ENDS GERMAN EMPIRE

Again, in 1914, the Germans invaded French soil only to be defeated by an alliance including French, English and American armies in World War I. That war ended the German Empire of the Emperor Wilhelm II.

For the third time in 70 years, in 1940, the Germans under Dictator Adolf Hitler overwhelmed the French in World War II and were in turn crushed by the French allies, the English, Americans and Russians.

It's hardly the background for a friendly handshake.

Yet today, the leaders of West Germany and France, the towering figures of Western Europe, are saying things about one another's nation which would have meant political suicide for a French or German politician not too long ago.

The September 4 state visit of auster, 71-year-old President Charles De Gaulle to patriarchal, 86-year-old Chancellor Konrad Adenauer drives another rivet into a growing, sturdy structure. And for a variety of reasons, many in the West view the alliance with mixed enthusiasm and apprehension.

U.S. HAD PROBLEMS

The United States welcomes any harbinger of a future European political integration. But U.S. policy makers have had their problems with President De Gaulle, and have had them, to a somewhat lesser degree, with the crusty West German chancellor.

De Gaulle apparently still believes in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization. But he also believes in France's individual glory and in the idea that it should have its own national nuclear force. The United States does not welcome the idea of one more finger on the nuclear trigger.

Not long ago West Germans had been reported hostile to U.S. maneuvers regarding an approach to the Russians on the Berlin question. There had been other friction over what some Bonn oficials regarded as hints that West Germany should beef up her contribution to NATO conventional forces. These difficulties appear since to have been smoothed over.

OTHER ASPECTS

There are other important aspects in the French-German courtship. One of the most significant Against this is posed the apprehension of the smaller Benelux — Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg — nations that the French-German combine can dominate the European Common Market and an integrated Europe. The Benelux nations have been hoping British membership in the Common Market might fend off such a development. But Britain herself is divided on when, how or whether to join the Common Market and participate in the political unit which is supposed to grow out of close economic cooperation.

The possibility of the Bonn-Paris understanding creating friction elsewhere in the NATO camp does not make it any more attractive to the Russians. They view it with deep suspicion, call it a "notorious axis" aimed at preventing settlement of the Berlin and German problems. They accuse De Gaulle of wanting to recruit West German know-how to produce French nuclear weapons.

AGREE ON BERLIN

De Gaulle and Adenauer do not seem impressed by the sensation they have produced on both sides of the Iron Curtain. They are one in the conviction that there is nothing in Berlin to negotiate with the Russians. De Gaulle has told Adenauer the Paris government stands firmly for German reunification on the principle of self-determination. French governments which preceded De Gaulle would have been horrified at the thought of such a policy statement.

Adenauer has been more enthusiastic for actual political unity than De Gaulle, who has no intention of agreeing to any supranational structure which would entail surrender of French sovereignty. De Gaulle's idea of unity is a "Europe of the Fatherlands," undominated by any one nation or group, but cooperating closely while retaining national individuality.

The German leader has been pictured as preferring a system of periodic meetings of heads of the European Common Market governments to make decisions on the basis of majority vote.

Apparently, however, what differences of views remain between them have not dampened their ardor for their alliance. Adenauer has told De Gaulle he sees it as a firm political dam against Communism. He has credited De Gaulle with the wisdom and energy to make possible a reconciliation which can permit 103 million French and Germans to live in harmony and become a great political and economic force.

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A guaranteed profit margin to Gulf Oil Corp. dealers on gasoline prices has been withdrawn by Gulf.

Gulf said Monday the change, effective Monday, was prompted by so called abnormal conditions that forced prices to low levels.

A spokesman said Gulf previously had guaranteed its dealers a minimum profit regardless of the price of gasoline.

11-YEAR-OLD GETS DRIVING LICENSE BAN

HARRISBURG (AP) — Most youngsters in Pennsylvania can apply for a driver's license at 16, but not 11-year-old John Haney—he's been banned from driving until his 18th birthday.

The State Traffic Safety Bureau imposed the ban to punish young Haney for driving his father's car on the streets of Bridgeport in Montgomery County last year. He was just 10 at the time.

"We can't take his license away because he hasn't got one, but we can stop him from applying," Traffic Safety Director O. D. Shipley declared Tuesday night.

WAS PICKED UP

Shipley said young Haney was picked up by state police at 11:25 p.m. last Nov. 25 while driving alone in his father's sedan.

Later, at a hearing before Justice of the Peace John A. Turley, the youngster was fined $10 and assessed another $5 in costs. His father, William Haney, paid the bill, along with a $45 fine levied against him for allowing the boy to drive the car.

The elder Haney also lost his driver's license for two months, effective Aug. 21, as additional punishment.

The father has appealed both actions to the Montgomery County courts.

Original Income Tax Bill In 1862 Included Dividend Withholding Tax Provisions

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP)—Just over 100 years ago the first income tax in American history went into effect with a provision now being kicked around in Congress as if it were brand new and unthinkable.

This act of July 1, 1862—among other things—called for withholding a tax on dividends and interest paid out by banks, trust companies, railroads, savings institutions and insurance companies.

The Supreme Court in 1881, by a unanimous decision, declared this act constitutional.

FIERY OPPOSITION

But now when President Kennedy asks Congress to approve a withholding tax on dividends and interest—as part of a general tax revision to close loopholes in the tax laws—he has run into fiery opposition.

Sen. Harry F. Byrd, conservative Southern Democrat of Virginia, says the dividend withholding is "unworkable." Sen. Jacob K. Javits, liberal New York Republican, says it is "impractical." Stock exchange firms, life insurance companies and banks want it knocked out of the bill or changed. The National Association of Manufacturers blasted the whole bill.

STRANGE SUPPORT

Support for the idea comes from equally strange mates, like liberal Sen. Paul Douglas, D-Ill., and the conservative U.S. Chamber of Commerce.

Stranger still, nobody on either side seems to remember that act of 1862 which provided for what Kennedy is asking now. But that law of a century ago should be an eye-opener to those who think some of the main features of the present tax system are of recent origin.

It was a graduated income tax. Then—again—the first $600 of income was exempt. Then the tax was 3 per cent on income between $600 and $10,000 and 5 per cent on all income over $10,000. It went up higher later in the Civil War. It also imposed a tax on inheritance over $1,000. And—the tax was withheld from the salaries of government employees.

PASSED BY HOUSE

The House passed Kennedy's tax revision bill March 29, leaving in the withholding tax on dividends and interest. Then the measure went over to the Senate where the Finance Committee, headed by Byrd, began hearings. When the Byrd committee got through with the bill, the withholding tax on dividends was gone. The Senate this week began debate on the measure.

The Senate bill, as it stands, instead of saving the government money will probably cost the government money. It's a guess whether the withholding tax on dividends and interest will be put back on the Senate floor.

TREASURY CLAIM

Yet, the Treasury says $4 billion in dividend and interest income is not reported each year.

PERLMAN SAYS TRUCKS GRAB RAIL BUSINESS

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Alfred E. Perlman of the New York Central Railroad says ships and trucks are tougher competitors than the Pennsylvania Railroad. But he added that together, the Central and the Pennsylvania could grab back some business lost to the other carriers.

Perlman's testimony came Tuesday before two Interstate Commerce Commission examiners considering the two railroads' merger bid.

Private motor carriers are the Central's greatest freight competitors, Perlman said.

HEATED EXCHANGE

"Do they take more business away from you than the Pennsylvania Railroad?" asked William Mahoney, counsel for the Railway Labor Executives Association.

Perlman's testimony was marked by a heated exchange with Joseph Auerbach, counsel for the bankrupt New Haven Railroad. The New Haven has demanded that it be included in the Pennsylvania-Central merger. But neither the Central nor the Pennsylvania wants the Southern New England line counted in.

Perlman echoed the advice of James M. Symes, chairman of the Pennsylvania, that the New Haven would be better off if it eliminated unnecessary expenses and merged with other New England railroads in one big terminal system.

Auerbach contended the New Haven would suffer drastic traffic losses if it is left out of the Pennsylvania-Central combination. He said it could be an asset to that system.

Westinghouse Has Strike Furlough

SHARON, Pa. (AP)—Some 3,500 workers at the Westinghouse Electric Corp. plant in Sharon were serving one-day disciplinary furloughs Wednesday after they reportedly staged a sitdown strike Tuesday.

A spokesman for Westinghouse said the strike was a violation of contract. He said the strike was apparently in sympathy with 26 tube rollers who walked out last Tuesday.

NEW DRUG MAY COMBAT COLDS STUDY SHOWS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A drug to combat colds, a question about high protein diets, and a study of mental stress and tooth decay figure in the medical news: An antiviral drug, nicknamed ABOB, often can prevent or suppress respiratory infections of the common cold type, a Swedish physician reports.

In tests in an industrial plant, ABOB was credited with reducing absenteeism from colds by 50 per cent, when workers took the drug at the first sign of symptoms. In another experiment when it was taken as a preventive, the incidence of colds was reduced by 30 to 40 per cent, says Dr. John

Friday in a dispute over time values assigned to a job.

The tube rollers were given furloughs and ordered to return to work Monday midnight but failed to do so, the spokesman said.

The spokesman said the other employees were ordered to go to work Tuesday. When they refused, they were sent home and given furloughs, the spokesman said.

Officials of Local 617 of the International Union of Electrical Workers were not available for comment.

Bob Kennedy Has New Political Rule

WASHINGTON (AP)—The rules for success in politics are many and colorful, and Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy has added another—"Don't knock having a brother as president."

The subject came up Tuesday in a chat between Kennedy and 30 college students in his office. One student wondered whether having a brother in the White House was a disadvantage in his job.

Replied the attorney general: "No—a great advantage. I don't knock it."

Haglund of Koping, Sweden.

HIGH PROTEIN DIETS

A medical research team takes issue with the idea that a high protein diet allows the body to store up reserves of protein, useful later on if diseases strike or you have to go hungry. Such diets are being recommended for that reason.

There is no scientific evidence, from rat experiments, that the body can bank proteins, report Drs. L. Emmett Holt Jr., and Elias Halac Jr., and Charlotte N. Kajdi, A.B., of New York and Baltimore.

WORRY AND TEETH

Mental stress and strain somehow may make teeth more susceptible to decay, at least in some adults, says an Australian dentist.

Dr. Philip R. N. Sutton of Melbourne checked records of hundreds of people and found that an outbreak of tooth decay frequent-

PHILLY PROBE TO CONTINUE

HARRISBURG (AP)—The State Justice Department has refused to intercede in a planned grand jury probe of alleged municipal corruption in Philadelphia.

Atty. Gen. David Stahl announced Tuesday he had written a letter to President Judge Joseph E. Gold of Philadelphia Common Pleas Court saying he could find no grounds on which to intercede.

The only issue involving the Stahl, would be the protection of Justice Department, declared Stahl.

Judge Gold had written Stahl ly followed times of great mental worry or stress. But he says the findings thus far are only suggestive, not conclusive.

on Aug. 23 requesting the Justice Department's intervention in a challenge brought through a taxpayer's suit to the legality of the special investigation.

Philadelphia Judge Eugene V. Alessandrini had ordered the special grand jury investigation on July 11. The probe is due to get under way next Tuesday.

The taxpayer's suit had challenged the right of the court to appoint a special prosecutor to assist the grand jury in place of the district attorney.

DERBY, England (AP) — A mother of six offered Tuesday to give up her month-old baby daughter in exchange for a house.

Jean Rook, 33, said she would make the sacrifice to put a roof over the heads of her five other children.

The Rooks were evicted from their home for not paying the rent. Mrs. Rook and the children were given temporary accommodation in a hospital. Her unemployed husband, Jim, 35, was taken into a Salvation Army hostel.
